Attractive Bride

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Bernice Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, of Lakemont, Ga., to Leon Scruggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Scruggs, of Brevard. The ceremony was performed in Clayton, Ga., May 28. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scruggs are employed by Ecusta.

It was in a movie house. The audience sat spellbound while a thrilling tale of love and romance was being unfolded on the screen. One of the high points was a scene where the hero slapped the heroine vigorously on the face and stalked off. In the tense silence following this bit of drama, a child's voice piped from somewhere in the theatre, "Mama," it inquired, "why doesn't she hit him back like you do, mama?"

VASES AND VASES. Did a crisis arise in your household when some member of the family received flowers and you couldn't find the right kind of vase in which to arrange them? Vases, like umbrellas, are things that people do not buy every day, simply because there is no immediate need for them. Yet, they are very necessary in your home. It's a good idea to have about three, of different sizes and shapes, in order to have an appropriate one for whatever kinds of flowers you wish to display from time to time. If you grow your own flowers and you can have the luxury of blossoms in your home all during the gardening season, you may want one or two more vases. These need not be expensive to be attractive, if you use care in selecting them, and—best of all—there's no shortage.

LAUNDRY SAVERS. Do you have one of the washable plastic covers to put over your colorful luncheon cloths? They're transparent white, to let the pattern of the table cloth show through, and are good laundry savers.

There are more warmed-over ideas than hot ones.

ing sure to twist your brush in a circle as you reach the hair ends. The brush strokes should follow the pattern of your final hair comb, but the setting trick is the final twist of the brush as you end each stroke.

Try it! Once you add the brush set to your bag of tricks, you can don a casual washable and you're all set for a really comfortable summer.

TIME SAVERS

Make a hankie to match each of the little girl's dresses. Not only are they attractive, but help them find the "one to match."
Canned meat, commercial or home made, can easily be reheated from the can by placing on back of the stove.
Make blouses for your little girls. Why not lengthen them to a slip? She'll adore it; it can be slipping out, and will be perfect for summer, as no other is necessary.
Use a sink stopper, that you can find, substitute a piece of inner tube cut slightly larger than the drain. Suction will hold it in place.

CONGRESSIONAL RETORT

A visitor at the Capitol was accompanied by his small son. The boy watched from the gallery when the House came to order. He did the minister pray for these men, pop?"
"He didn't. He looked them over and prayed for the country."
