The annual meeting, election of officers and directors for the coming year, was held at the Cafeteria, Tuesday night, September 17, 1946.

Approximately 260 members attended this meeting. After the meeting was formally opened by President Luke Harrison, he displayed the banner, and had it hung in the Cafeteria in its permanent place. Bill Bangs, as chairman of the nominating committee, placed certain names in nomination for the various offices. Nominations were also called for from the floor.

The newly elected officers are: Coy Fisher, president; Jack Wilbur vice-president; Bob Anders, secretary; Nat Townsend, treasurer;

Wilson Gregory and Paul Sitton, directors for two years; Fulton Holliday, director for one year.

The following directors, who will serve the second year of their two-year term are Scott Dillingham and Walter Kay.

Following the voting, the members lined up for their plates of sliced roast turkey with all the fixings, which was heartily enjoyed by everyone.

Luke Harrison reported that Coy Fisher is doing exceptionally well, and we all hope that he will be back with us again as soon as possible. The news that he is doing fine is encouragement for all of us who worried about him.

Walter Kay was also reported recuperating rapidly from his siege of pneumonia.

Jack Wilbur, the newly elected vice-president and acting presiding officer, in his acceptance speech, acknowledged the thanks of the club to the men and women that were responsible for the preparation of the culinary treat.

The outgoing officers and directors wish to take this opportunity to thank all the members for their excellent co-operation during the past year, and to extend to the newly elected officers and directors their best wishes for the continued success of the Five-Year Service Club.
