

CHURCH OF THE MONTH

When you see such a clean and well-kept church as the Little River Baptist, you say to yourself, "Here's a church that certainly must have a pastor who is on his toes and a membership that takes great pride in making its place of worship attractive and comfortable."

And this impression is correct.

The only church in this progressive farm community, the Baptist church, under the leadership of Rev. F. M. Barnes, is moving ahead—expanding its Sunday School plant, reaching more people and, in general, doing a fine work. The church, with a mem-
