

In selecting this all-star team, The Echo wrote each of the eight managers in the league and asked for his nominations. The men pictured on these pages were the choices. Enka has placed four men, Ecusta has three; Hazelwood and Sayles two each; and Beacon, Berkeley, and Martel one each. As is true in any selection of this type, some good men had to be left off, but it would be difficult to pick a stronger club than is shown on these pages.

The outfield is strong, abounding with powerful hitters and good fielders. Tom Tweed of Enka, upper left, was chosen for the utility outfield spot and to the right of him is Sam Patton of Enka, who was picked as manager and rightfielder on the mythical team. Lower left is Oliver Yount, hard-hitting Hazelwood leftfielder, and beside him is Dewey Hunnicutt of Berkeley, centerfielder.
