

QUESTION OF THE MONTH

Each year Ecusta has a Christmas party for children of employees. The children have always seemed to enjoy the parties very much, but we would like to get the opinions of some parents. Question: DO YOUR CHILDREN ENJOY THE ECUSTA CHRISTMAS PARTIES?

Roy Fisher, Refining: Larry (age 10) says, "You bet I like the Ecusta Christmas parties! Especially all those comic pictures, and that big stocking full of goodies that Santa gives us is really something!"

Wanda (age 7) says, "O Boy! I'll be glad when I can go back to Ecusta and see Santa Claus, so I can tell him what to bring me."

Nathan "Babe" Passmore, Pulp Mill: I think that the answer is evident. The expression on the children's faces give the answer perfectly. As they talk with Santa and listen to the Christmas music their faces are radiant with joy.

Estus C. Thomas, Machine Room: The children really enjoy the Christmas parties at Ecusta because they represent the birth of Christ. We all enjoy the programs at the cafeteria, and the gifts and treats that are given us by the company. We also enjoy the Christmas Carols, the music by the band and the movies. I hope that we can attend many more parties at Ecusta.

Sophia R. Jones, Endless Belt: My children have already started asking me when they would have the Christmas party at Ecusta, and if Santa would be there.

After their party last year my little daughter asked me a question I couldn't quite answer, "Mama, how does all the Santa Claus girls ride with Santa on the sleigh with all the toys?"

Oh yes! They love every minute of the Christmas parties, thanks to Mr. Straus.
