

Right: This Bloodmobile speeds the days collections to Asheville for rapid processing and shipment.

Below: Second count and blood keeps this soldier alive while being moved to a nearby hospital.

Below: Thanks to Claude Jones, Pulp Mill, a wounded soldier who might otherwise die will get a new lease on life.

Below: Staff Aide Workers serve coffee, cokes, cookies to donors.

