

OLIN PLANTS AND PRODUCTS

CITY

PRODUCTS

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1. East Alton, Illinois           | Sporting ammunition, clay targets, trap and kiln guns and kiln gun ammunition, blasting caps, smokeless ball powder, high explosives, brass and other non-ferrous alloys and fabricated parts. |
| 2. St. Louis, Missouri            | Lumberyards  |
| 3. Pollard, Illinois              | Black powder   |
| 4. Edwards, Illinois              | Black powder   |
| 5. Peru, Indiana                  | Fuses and torpedoes  |
| 6. Cleveland, Ohio                | Powder-actuated tools and fastening studs.   |
| 7. Mt. Braddock, Pennsylvania     | Dynamite   |
| 8. New Haven, Connecticut         | Sporting firearms and ammunition, roller skates, gun preparations, flashlights, dry cell batteries, brass and other non-ferrous alloys and fabricated parts.                                   |
| 9. Cambridge, Massachusetts       | Polyethylene film and tubing.  |
| 10. Pisgah Forest, North Carolina | Cellophane, cigarette, and other fine flax papers and endless woven belts.   |
| 11. Covington, Tennessee          | Dry cell batteries, synthetic manganese dioxide compounds.   |
| 12. Huttig, Arkansas              | Southern pine and hardwood lumber.   |
| 13. Marion, Louisiana             | Southern pine and hardwood lumber.   |
| 14. Monroe, Louisiana             | Lumberyards  |
| 15. Mansfield, Louisiana          | Southern pine and hardwood lumber.   |
| 16. Shreveport, Louisiana         | Creosoted and Wolmanized lumber, poles, piling and posts and outdoor furniture.  |
| 17. El Centro, California         | Flax Fibres.   |
| 18. Los Gatos, California         | Fuses and torpedoes  |
| 19. Frederickson, Washington      | Dynamite   |