

DEPARTMENTAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owen were married in the Oak Grove Baptist Church on October 2, with Rev. Gene Henson officiating. Mrs. Owen is the former Miss Dorris Reid. She is employed in the Film Division Planning Office.

POLYETHYLENE

By J. H. McCall

We wish to welcome the new men in our new department at Ecusta. Don Stoneback, our Superintendent (that fellow that works all the shifts) has been with us several weeks.

Walter Sorokoff, Carl Hansen, Leroy Shultz, and Francis Flynn are our foreman and George Tesnow is the relief foreman.

Bobby Reid came over from Slitting, Vance Davis transferred from Chemical, Derieux Thomas from Wrap and Pack, Ray Holcomb from Control, Dallas Ball from Slitting, Harvy Scruggs from Chemical, Joe Heatherly from Coating, Roy Cooper from Chemical, and Coy Corn from Coating. Our new lab men are Howard Tiger, John Parker, and Leo Aiken.

We are starting out with high hopes, and contrary to Riley in the "Life of Riley," we think this is a most interesting development.

The fellows from "Poly" wish everyone a very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year.

More and more of our countrymen are finding peace of soul and mind in worship in churches of their choice. Recent figures show that 59 per cent of our population now is affiliated with a church. Sales of religious books were three times that of all other books in 1953; religious films are strong at box offices.

"A" SHIFT FINISHING

FILM DIVISION

By Jim Schrieber

Dear Santa:

Just got word that a Christmas issue of The Echo would be sent to the North Pole, so instead of making you read a lot of letters, "A" Shift just decided to tell you what they wanted for Christmas in this article. Here they are all in order

Earl Bumgarner—a lavender Cadillac; there is always somebody who wants one of these.

James Owen—a yacht just like the one Mr. Truman used to cruise up and down the Potomac.

Earl Fullbright—a toupee.

Earl Johnson—Earl said to just give his gift to some needy kid because he was expecting a nice present from someone in the office.

Calvin Greer—Santa, Greer wants you to bring Hendersonville a victory over Brevard in football.

Fred Teague—all he wants is to be off Christmas Eve, (sigh).

Earl Birchfield—Earl doesn't seem to need a thing so just give his baby boy a nice Christmas.

Pete Dockens—a pint of that good North Pole snow cream if you can spare it.

Hoot Allison—although he owns the best dogs in the country, he would like to have a couple more.

Bob Miller—a month's vacation with all expenses paid so he can tour the country with the Statesman Quartet.

Bill Parris—a new Ford Thunderbird.

Walter Hoyle—a free trip to all of the Notre Dame football games next year.

Bob Marshall—something for the new arrival, which is due about Christmas.

James Adcock—he just wants you to see that his kids have a good time. If they have a big time, so will he.

Edward Nicholson—a beagle to replace the one he disposed of a few days ago.

Jack Creasman—a new blue flannel suit.

Paul McCoy—if you can spare one of your working elves, he would like to have one to work "graveyard" for him.

Don Bird—pay for his car.

Ed Mann—a complete new fishing outfit.

Cotton Brookshire—a hundred dollar bill.

Cecil Morgan—some good Beagles.

William Burrell—a draft deferment, also a pair of six shooters so he won't have to shoot from his hip with that heavy old rifle.