

"Not a creature is stirring"—but the Spirit of Christmas is abroad! Charles Kerlee, photographic artist, decked the fireplace with Yuletide candles and pine-cones, and caught the scene just after good Saint Nick had filled three stockings "hung with care", and then whisked up the chimney for his next call. For this little family, "the present with a future" — a United States Savings Bond — will brighten this Christmas and also the years to come.