DICKERING WITH DOC

A scrappy fighting Lee Edwards eleven went after the Red Raiders of Greenville in determined fashion on Armistice Day. Asheville fans saw a hard-hitting, smooth running team take the field and come out on the long end of the score. The local team played the best they have this year, and they had full cause since the Greenville squad was tough. Credit must be given the losers, for in spite of bad breaks, they put up a battle that made the local boys fight to keep their end up. With this win under their belts, the Red Devils strode over a weaker Mars Hill team and skidded to an easy finish when they stamped out the lads from High Point in the Thanksgiving classic. It is rumored that we will see the Asheville team once more this year in a post season game with a yet unnamed opponent.

Although Alabama won their tilt with Vandy last Thursday, it seems we may have been mistaken when we chose them for the Rose Bowl game. It would be more likely, we think, for them to accept the Sugar Bowl tournament and leave the former for Pitt. The more interesting engagement should develop if the other probability for the Sugar Bowl, Fordham, should meet Alabama there, and leave the strong Pitt squad to battle it out with California in Pasadena.

BASKETBALL

Biltmore is coming up with a fine basketball team, if appearances mean anything. The boys have been practicing unofficially for some time and are raring to go places when official practice begins this week. We are looking to Tom Reynolds, an able man from the last year five, to help carry the team to great heights. The Biltmore students have pledged themselves to back the team and help put over a ripsnorting successful season. LET'S GO, BULLDOGS!

GOLF

Asheville golfers and golf fans witnessed a great match at the Municipal Golf Course, Tuesday, two weeks ago. Lawson Little and Horton Smith licked "Lighthorse Harry" Cooper and Jimmy Thompson 3 and 2. Little posted a par 71 while Smith and Cooper carded 74's and Thompson tailed with a 75. This was one of the best foursomes ever to play in this part of the country.

Cal Culate is drooping a weary head these days since he made such a fizzle at guessing football scores; but he talked the boss into letting him cover the basketball games and he will be with us again when the season opens. His only statement for the press at this time is:

"LET 'ER RIP BULLDOGS".

WILLIAMS RESIGNS AS CLUB PRESIDENT

Much conjecture has been aroused by the resignation of Miss Nina Williams from the presidency of the Eeta Beta Pi Club, which she organized earlier in the year. Miss Harriet Allen, vice-president, succeeds her as president.

In a recent interview with the resigning president, Miss Williams said, "Please don't misunderstand my resignation. Several people seem to have the idea that it was due to some misunderstanding between a member, or members, of the club and myself. That is not true. I have had their support and cooperation since the club was first organized. My real reason for resigning is that I lack the time to devote to the office. If ever I can help the club in any way, I am ready and willing to do so."

NEWSANCE

By A. NEWSHUND

English, German, French; chemistry, physics, biology; economics, sociology, accounting; government, history, bible; algebra, trigonometry, calculus; creative English, dramatics, playwriting; physical education, health, and . . . oh yes, lunch! Put a tablespoon of each in the pot, add a cup of democracy, a pinch each of basketball, football (a very small pinch and better make it 'tag' brand this year), singing, nosey newspapering, flowerpotting, library work (a very small pinch)(and (to enrage Miss Bryan's etymological pride) compulsory chapelization.

Next mix in enough dancing till dawn, scavenger hunting, weiner roasts, camping parties, and progressive dinners to suit your taste; throw in generous portions of Miss Bryan, Mr. Merrill, and Mr. Roberts, with thorough portions of Dr. Mann, Dean Lloyd and Mr. Stevenson.

Agitate this heterogeneous mixture with ample student spirit; immediately place it in the Oven of Knowledge. There bake it a few months in the flame of youth. Then lo and behold! you have that splendid, doubtful, glowing growing, delicacy called Biltmore College life.

Some one ought to have assembled this recipe before this; but now you have it at last in full, guaranteed not to flop, flunk (HUMMMM), or bore by that one and only specie of Germanic caninity, that high-powered splasher of the newsance ink, the newshund.
