DR. GLENN L. BUSHEY WELCOMES STUDENTS AS FALL SEMESTER BEGINS ON NEW CAMPUS

It is indeed a privilege and a pleasure to welcome students and faculty to our campus at the beginning of an academic year which promises to be one of the greatest in the history of the college.

Our dream of a campus in keeping with the dignity of our work has been realized. We now occupy a campus which for scenic beauty, architecture, and landscaping is probably unsurpassed in America. All of us must cooperate in maintaining and enhancing the attractiveness of our college community.

In our zeal to secure a beautiful new home for the college, we did not neglect academic standards. Course offerings have been increased and enriched. A three year curriculum in medical technology, a curriculum in drafting, and a two-year curriculum for medical secretaries have been established. The curricula in radio technique and in general business have been strengthened. For the first time in years, the college is offering courses in music. The teaching staff has been strengthened by the addition of individuals outstanding in their respective fields.

Recently, a representative of one of the greatest universities of the South paid high tribute to the quality of academic work done at Asheville-Biltmore College. It is possible for every student on our campus to receive sound educational training.

It is the purpose of this college to assist in the well-rounded development of the individual. And
