

Bulldogs Fall To Davidson, 20 to 13

The strong Davidson College freshmen took advantage of three Bulldog mistakes and turned them into touchdowns to top the Bulldogs 20-13 in an offensive battle here Saturday afternoon.

A fumble, a 15-yard penalty, and an intercepted pass put the Wild Kittens into scoring position. The Bulldogs took over the lead in the first period and were tied 7-7 at the half. The first score was made on a 55-yard run by the A-B reserve halfback George Nicholson.

Following the half the Bulldogs held the Wild Kittens for downs on the A-B 30, but a 15-yard penalty for illegal use of the hands gave Davidson a first down on the 15. From there Coulter rammed across to put the frosh out front 13-7.

Asheville-Biltmore drove 70 yards following the kickoff sparked by a 42-yard haul by Carroll Penley that carried to the four yard stripe. Quarterback Tucker Graham carried over for the score. Dave Mathews missed the extra point.

Late in the final period the Wild Kittens intercepted another A-B pass on the 18 to halt a scoring march. A 40-yard heave from Lou Fox to Tommy Davis had put the Bulldogs in scoring position.

The running of Nicholson, Penley and Pinney highlighted the Bulldogs' attack along with the passing of Foxx and Graham. Gambill, Gahagan, Marlowe, and Laughter were the defensive leaders.
