

CAMPUS CRIER

AMERICA'S SMALLEST COLLEGE SEMI-MONTHLY

Vol. VI

Asheville-Biltmore College, Asheville, N. C., March 1, 1951

No. 9

QUEEN AND COURT CHOSEN TO REIGN OVER MAY DAY

On February 23 it was announced that Rose Marie Brown had been elected May Queen and would reign over the annual May Day Program.

Her court consists of Jean Harrison and Dot Meadows from the sophomore class and Pat Barefoot and Anne Burnette from the freshman class.

The Classical Coeds will sponsor May Day, with Bobbie Capps as chairman. The theme chosen for this year is "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Adapting the tale for presentation are Betty Anne Fryar, Bobbie Capps, and Sylvania Lyda.

Designing Costumes are Virginia Speirakis, Joan Dysland, and Jean Harrison.

Dance chairmen are Carol Weaver and Jo Price. Miss Francis McKinney, instructor of physical education at the Y. W. C. A., has agreed to teach May-pole dance and folk-dances for the program.

High School seniors from Lee Edwards and various county schools are to be invited for the program. Serving on the invitation committee are Patsy Jansen, Arberta Floyd, and Modena Penland.

ADLIBBERS MEET

The Radio Club of Asheville-Biltmore met at the home of Paul Clay Wednesday evening, February 21. It was decided to have an election of officers for the new semester, to be held at the next meeting. The club has great hopes for the future, with fourteen members instead of the nine of last semester. The club regrets the loss of one of its most active members, Irene Sherrell, who was accepted by the University of North Carolina, where she will continue her study in the field of psychology.

MONOGRAM CLUB NEWS

The Monogram Club held its first spring meeting during the advisory hour on February 23. Coach Coman presided over the meeting.

The new business brought up for discussion was the coming baseball team that has been rumored here at A-B. The election of new officers was held, and George Nicholson was elected president, Gerald Thompson vice-president, and John Nicholson secretary-treasurer.

Among the other discussions during the meeting was the 'ole familiar song of how to raise money for sweaters for the new and coming lettermen. A basketball game between the club members and the faculty of A-B was proposed, but the matter is undecided as of now.

M. SPEARS NAMED EDITOR OF BLUETS

Mac Spears was elected editor of the spring edition of Bluets at a meeting held on February 23.

Other officers are Quentin Enloe, feature editor; Mary Higgins, poetry editor; David Belcher and Betty Anne Fryar, short story editors; Sylvania Lyda, book review editor; and Ruby Jean Herring, art editor.

Bluets will be distributed to the students around the middle of May.