PREXY TALKS ON INCREASING ENROLLMENT

The drive for new students got under way with a talk by Dr. Bushey in chapel. He emphasized the need for new students and told the part each of us could play by encouraging high school students to attend Asheville-Biltmore.

NEW PIANO FOR SPEECH BUILDING

Through the efforts of Ann Cloninger, a student in Radio 1.V., the Speech-Drama Department received a gift of an upright piano from Dunham's Music House here.

As an immediate result, the College Showcase program, formerly recorded in the Assembly Hall of the Administration Building, was this week recorded in the Speech Building.

The piano from Dunham's proved to record more satisfactorily than the large piano in the Assembly Hall.

Students in the Speech-Drama Department are this week congratulating Miss Cloninger on her coup d'etat.

A-B SEEKS SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION ADMITTANCE

Steps are being taken here by faculty and administration in order to qualify us for accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges.

Among the moves being made to so qualify us are modifications in library facilities and the student grading system.

Mr. Jackson A. Owen, Psychology Dept. Head, has done considerable work preparatory to modifying our grading set-up.

THIS MONTH'S CHUCKLES

A true lover has been defined as a man who puts his ear to the keyhole to hear a girl singing in the bath tub.

If a kiss speaks volumes, it is seldom a first edition.

* * * *

The great hazards on the highways are those under 21 driving over 65 and those over 65 driving under 21.

One reason why girls of today are such live wires is that they wear so little insulation.

Welcome To Advertisers

The paper wishes to extend heartiest greetings to all of the folks who are advertising in our Asheville-Biltmore paper. Without advertisers, the paper would not exist.

We of the staff are sure that every student at the college will patronize the advertisers, and in this way express appreciation for the entire school.

From The President's Desk

Members of the faculty and the board of directors of Asheville-Biltmore College are giving serious consideration to the matter of establishing dormitories on our campus. For a number of years students have shown a high degree of interest in this project. The primary responsibility of our community college is to the citizens of this area. However, we feel that the establishment of dormitories will increase rather than decrease our ability to serve local students. The broadening influence of association with people from other sections of the state, from other states, and from foreign countries would accrue to our local youth if we had boarding students on our campus. We would also have better facilities for providing meals, more adequate provisions for extra-curricular activities, an enriched campus life, improved school spirit, and an increased enrollment which would permit stronger student organization.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

—Matthew 5:16

"We should consider the histories of Christ three manner of ways; first, as a history of acts or legends; secondly, as a gift or present; thirdly, as an example, which we should believe and follow."

—Martin Luther

BOB MAULDIN PRODUCES COLLEGE SHOW

A new member of the Speech-Drama Department's group of majors has stepped into the post of producer of the College's weekly radio-dance band show, "The College Show."

By special arrangement with the American Broadcasting Co., Mr. Mauldin is permitted to record on tape, the Saturday night ABC Dancing Party, and then re-broadcast it the week following, with a college student introducing each number.

Along with his duties as College producer, Mr. Mauldin also works as a television cameraman at WLOS, and finds time for such additional projects as building a miniature model of a TV studio as a teaching aid for the radio-TV course here.

Phi Theta Kappa Initiates Five New Members

Thursday, February 23, five new members were "pinned." They were: D. W. ("Chief") Hawkins, Julia Kerlee, Karen Cornell, Don Robalt, and Norma Jean Nix.

The College Showcase

Mr. Chuck Wenger steps up to the microphone and, bubbling with enthusiasm, begins the College Showcase radio show.

"Welcome to another edition of the College Showcase, transcribed and recorded on the campus of Asheville-Biltmore College," Chuck says, and another program has begun.

Jim Laughridge, June Davis, The Summits, and Dean Haney step up to the microphone. Because of these talented students, the College Showcase is vastly increasing its popularity over the Western North Carolina area.

Wayne Harris, the program director of WWIT says, "I sincerely believe that the College Showcase is one of the finer programs heard on any station in the Asheville-Canton-Waynesville (area) including those stations with network affiliations. As far as I am concerned, it rates with any network show."
