

THE CAMPUS CRIER

MONTHLY NEWSPAPER OF ASHEVILLE-BILTMORE COLLEGE

Volume 1 - Issue 2

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

April, 1956

May Day Program

The May Day Program will be held on the lawn of Asheville-Biltmore the fifth of May. Barbara Maxwell has been chosen queen by the students. In her court from the Sophomore Class are, Ann Cloninger Anderson and Hank Wolfshlag. From the Freshman Class are, Nell Wilson, Ann Shaw, and June Davis.

FIRST GOLF TOURNAMENT HERE

Asheville-Biltmore will be host to the first annual Western Carolinas Junior College golf tournament. The tournament, which is under the direction of Coach Jernigan and Pete Goodman, (who is Pro at Beaver Lake), has been outlined over the holidays. The tournament will be played as a team event, with four members to each team and also with individual honors. Teams represented will be from Mars Hill, Lees-McCrae, Spartanburg, North Greenville, Brevard, Gardner-Webb, and Asheville-Biltmore. The Asheville-Biltmore golfers will be Mark Shuford, Bill Rice, Jack Bishop and Charles Harrill.

DEAN HANEY IS A FATHER

Dean Haney, better known as "Cousin" Dean Haney to his fans who follow "The College Showcase" on WWIT, became the father of a seven pound, ten ounce boy. They named him Terrence Dean.

The Vampires

Vampires this month walked the halls of Asheville-Biltmore, villains tumbled from its tallest towers, the hero kissed the heroine and this college's new film production class cranked studiously at their cameras, filming the entire affair.

No one really took things seriously; who could with Dean Haney portraying the vampire?

As an experiment in lighting a mystery film, however the picture was an unqualified success, even if Dean Haney turned out to be the most lovable vampire of all times.

There was a fire at the zoo. Everything was destroyed but two slow-burning camels.

Maxwell Elected May Queen

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Maxwell were blessed with the birth of Barbara Kay on May 10, 1936, in Charleston, South Carolina. Little did Asheville know the significance of this event. In 1937, the Maxwells moved to Asheville where they lived for thirteen years before moving to Enka, their present home.

Among Barbara's many likes are those of sports, food, and popular music. When I asked Barbara about her dislikes, she couldn't think of anything she didn't like, and come to think of it, we can't think of anyone who dislikes her.

In Barbara's spare time you may find her playing the piano or taking part in the Alpha Beta Gamma, Classical CoEds, International Relations Club and cheering for our games.

On the first of March, Barbara was elected Asheville-Biltmore's May Queen. All of us at A-B are indeed happy to have Miss Barbara Maxwell on our campus.

Time Out For Spiritual Guidance

Jesus answered them, "My Father is working still, and I am working." John 5:17

Jesus found the meaning of life in work. In my mind's eye, I picture the Jesus of the Gospels as one whose hands were calloused from labor in a Galilean carpenter's shop. I see Him as one whose skin became bronzed from the Palestinian sun as He walked the dusty roads helping men and women in their need and suffering. The meaning of our lives also lies in our labor.

Through our labor we find our own fulfillment. Too many of us merely work rather than having a job to do. Consequently, we often go to our work with the attitude of "back to the salt mines." Only as our work is purposeful, is it meaningful, and only as it is meaningful do we find fulfillment through it.

Finley Eversole
Alabama

BUSINESS CLUB

Mrs. Lowrance and the Business Club visited Bell Telephone Co. Friday, March 24. The employees showed them Bell's facilities and equipment throughout the entire building.

CLUB NEWS

C. S. U.

The Christian Student Union was in charge of the assembly program on Thursday, March 29. The theme of the program was the Easter season. The girl's trio sang, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" Patsy Jackson read the scripture, and lead the students in prayer.

Eloise Edney introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. R. H. Fastenau from the Lutheran Church of Asheville.

Job Opportunity

The demand for clerical workers is greater than can be supplied by the secretarial department.

Every girl who desires work is placed now for part-time jobs, with the prospect of full-time work during the summer vacation.

Instead of the two-year graduates having to seek jobs, they are being solicited for jobs by banks, doctors, etc.

There is always a demand for male secretaries. Mrs. Lowrance urges boys who feel qualified for secretarial work to take courses in shorthand, since it is an opening for so many, worthwhile positions.

Students who are planning to go on to graduate work will find shorthand and typing an aid for taking lecture notes and getting out term papers.

This Month's Laughs

Some Communists love to air their dirty Lenin in public.

* * * *

Grace Kelly is lucky she saved for a rainy day, because now her days will be Rainier.

* * * *

A new type of lingerie that fits all kinds of figures is called alge-bra.

* * * *

Comics prefer having college boys in their audiences, because some of them are bound to be Phar Beta Klappers.

* * * *

If Lillian Roth appears on Person to Person they'll have to call it "I'll Cry To Morrow."

* * * *

And there was a senator who would always go up to the hot dog stand at picnics in his State and order one from the bottom. That was to show he was always for the under dog.