HOMECOMING 1969 BUSY TIME

For three days and after as many months of hard work Homecoming 1968 livened up the Asheville-Biltmore campus.

Although club displays had been up for several days, the festivities officially started on the eve of December 5 with the presentation of the Court, the crowning of the Queen, and a concert.

Miss Jill Diamond, known to many as A-B's head Cheerleader, was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1969.

Named to the Court were Miss Vera Culbreth, Miss Terri Rozell, Miss Barbara Brookshire, and Miss Diane Green.

Following the ceremonies, The Esquires, supported by The Tams, gave a swinging two hour concert.

Friday's activities began with an afternoon parade through downtown Asheville.

That evening the mighty Bulldogs slaughtered the Pembroke Indians on the hardwood.

In spite of rather chilly weather, Coed Cappers came off as scheduled on Saturday morning. A Mud Hunt, Egg Tossing, Musical Buckets, and a Pie Eating Contest were among the many hilarious events.

The Bulldogs secured another hardwood victory that evening when the literally stomped the Campbell Camels.

Dr. William E. Highsmith and Dean Alice Wutschel were presented the annual Homecoming Award for outstanding service to the school.

ALTHOUGH THE GREAT WHITE INTRUDER TEMPORARILY VISITED A-B THE DAY BEFORE ACTIVITIES BEGAN, HOMECOMING, UNLIKE LAST YEAR, STILL WENT OFF SMOOTHLY.

After receiving her crown, trophy, and roses, Miss Diamond begins her reign by strolling down a conventional red carpet.
