Soccer Team Wins!

Last Thursday, Sept. 18th, UNCA's soccer team routed the inexperienced Winthrop forces. The final score was on the positive side for UNCA, seven to zero.

It was a good team effort and we saw a new act in scoring—the Lepper Brother's act. Together George and Louis scored five of the seven goals. George scored three—one on a beautiful assist by brother Louis and another on a fake which faked Winthrop's goalie out of position (probably giving some grey hairs to Winthrop's coach; possibly thinking of his future goal defenses). Louis scored two goals. Others scoring goals were Allen Wallwork and Campbell Karnes with one each.

Forwards are accounting for most of UNCA's scoring which shows a good offensive team performance. Jim Mills, the freshman goalie, made numerous saves that will improve with each game. All players on the roster participated, gaining experience. Toward the end Coach Miller sent the starting lineup back into the game. Many can interpret this move as running up the score, but Coach Miller defends it by stating that he starts and ends all games with the same lineup.

Allen Wallwork could have possibly scored more goals if it had not been for the man-to-man coverage assigned him by Winthrop's Coach. This was a mistake because it left wide open spaces for UNCA to maneuver and score. Winthrop is a first year team and with more playing experience can become a team capable of competing with anyone.

The previous week saw UNCA victorious by the count of five to nothing over Wofford. The scoring was as follows, David Sciarasi with one goal, Allen Wallwork two goals and Louis Lepper and Jim Grigsby one apiece. The leading scorers so far are; Allen Wallwork with three goals and Louis and George Lepper (there's that brother act again) with three each.

Even though UNCA is undefeated, Coach Miller is understandably concerned with upcoming games. The games mentioned previously were scheduled ahead of the others to serve as a warmup for tough competition. Upcoming games will feature; Warren Wilson, Central Western, Western Carolina and the College of Charleston. This will be the "meat" of this year's schedule. Last year, UNCA surprised a few folks, by tying Western Carolina. Understandably, Western Carolina will be up for UNCA, but hopefully we will defeat them this year.

Rudy Moorrees was elected captain by his teammates this year. Preceding each game a co-captain is elected. This Thursday's co-captain was Allen Wallwork and last week it was Jim Grigsby. Co-Captains are determined by previous game performances. It will be no surprise to see one of the Leppers as co-captain next week.

Coach Miller feels that in order to make the NAIA District Six playoffs this year, it

S.G. Legal Advice Now Available

Attorneys from the firm of Wilson and Slawter have been retained by the Student Government for the purpose of advising students on any legal matters they may have, on or off campus.

This program, directed by Tom Zumberge, Legal Services Coordinator, arranged for an attorney to be available every Wednesday evening in the Student Government office for student consultation.

Any full time student is eligible to take advantage of this opportunity and should contact Kathryn Poovey or Tom in the SG office for further details, or to set up an appointment.

Good intentions are great, but participation is essential for action. Vote Christopher Smith
