STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITY

@
Universidad de Cantabria, Spain

Spend your Fall Semester in Spain earning credits towards your UNCA degree!

During this fall semester program, undergrads from 6 NC campuses including UNCA have the opportunity to attend a semester in the coastal city of Santander, taking classes from Spanish professors in Spanish geography, literature, art, and history.

Santander

This beautiful city of 200,000 people is set on a sparkling bay on Spain's northern coast, 300 miles from Madrid, 150 miles from the French border and a one day ferry ride to England.

Housing

Participants are housed in carefully-selected homestays located within easy access to the Universidad, downtown and the beaches. 3 daily meals and laundry are included in the price of the program.

Eligibility

All UNCA students in good academic standing (2.5+ GPA) and with at least a sophomore status are eligible to participate. Grades in Spanish language, references and a written statement are also considered.

The program begins in mid-Sept. and includes a two week language course.

For more information or an application stop by the Study Abroad Office, HC 31.
