"Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead"

In this award winning comedy, playwright Tom Stoppard serves up a feast of wickedly funny wordplay, wit, and slapstick while exploring timeless questions about identity, illusion, and toenail growing. A companion piece to "Hamlet", the play turns the Dane's story inside out and is told from the point of view of two of Hamlet's school chums.

An instant twentieth-century classic, "Rosencrantz & Guildenstern are Dead" won the Tony Award for Best Play, has appeared on stages all over the world, and became a major motion picture. Shenandoah Shakespeare Express uses its interactive style to shed new light on this comic masterpiece, inviting the audience to sit on stage while the performers use minimal technical effects, staging the play the way original Shakespearean productions were done.
