Don't Forget Cultural and Special Events this Spring!

UNC-Asheville Cultural and Special Events brings first-class performing arts to the campus stage each year. We often host touring world-beat jazz or pop, folk or light classical music, powerful theatre and spoken word performers, well-known authors or speakers on current issues, and dance of every description. Students may purchase discount tickets to all events.

The Cultural Events committee, composed of volunteer students, faculty and staff, works together to enrich and expand the cultural atmosphere of the campus and the broader community of western North Carolina. Coming February 7th - The African American Dance Ensemble! Lipinsky Auditorium, 8pm.
