Internships in International Affairs (open to all majors)

Several local community groups -- including the United Nations Association, the World Federalists, and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom -- have joined with UNCA to help support up to three UNCA students in several internationally-oriented internships in Washington DC and New York City this coming summer. Interested students may apply for these internships by completing and submitting an application to Mark Gibney (ZH 139, CPO 1940) by March 10, 2003. For more information, contact Mark Gibney (251-6553) or Linda Cornett (251-6974)
