UNCA Leadership Development Series

What is the Leadership Development Series?

The series consists of speakers and programs that have been chosen for the information that each has to offer our collegiate community. The Office of Student Life believes that this newly instituted program offers students information that can enhance their college and life careers.

Spring 2003 Leadership Programs:

- 4/9 Everything I Learned About Leadership, I Learned From my Dog (5pm-6pm in Laurel Forum)

Join Robert Straub, Kjrsten Keane, and their dogs to find out how training with dogs helps develop leadership qualities.

- 4/23 Etiquette Dinner (5:30pm-7:30pm, PDR's 100 and 200)

The Etiquette Dinner is a formal multiple-course dinner coordinated by the Office of Student Life during both the fall and spring semesters. Barbara Pate, an etiquette consultant, shares information on everything from how to properly introduce someone, to which spoon is used for soup.

Do you have questions about the Leadership Development Series? Contact Meg Dutnell in DH 233, 251-6672 or mdutnell@unca.edu

Back Country Cookin!

A series of "munch and make" sessions for great eatin' on the trail! Try and take home samples and recipes!

April 24, 2003: Great Trail Recipes and how to cook 'em. Get cooking, and get ready for the Back Country Cook OFF. Reed Plaza, Dining Hall, 5:30pm-7:30pm, FREE!

April 30, 2003: Back Country Cook OFF! Bring your best backcountry recipe and test your skills against the other master outdoor chefs at UNCA. Registration begins at 4:30pm. Competition begins at 5:30pm in PDR 100 and Reed Plaza, Dining Hall, and runs until 7:30pm. $3 entry fee. All monies collected will go towards purchasing a major prize to be awarded to the best backcountry cooks.

Rules:

- Teams of more than 1 are allowed, but only one prize will be awarded per team.
- The prize will be awarded to the best menu selection in the opinion of the judges. Decisions of judges are final.
- All foods must be cooked at the competition.
- Judges will be staff from UNCA Outdoors, Student Life, and Dining Services.
- Stoves and other cooking utensils will be available, but supplies are limited so sign up early to reserve stove and cook set.
- If you have a stove and cook set, please use your own so that we can provide for those who do not. To sign up early, come by the UNCA Outdoor Offices in the Health and Fitness Center 107.
