

Musicians honor UNCA's new Chancellor

The McLain Family Band with the University Sinfonia will give a concert Saturday blending bluegrass and classical music in honor of UNCA's new chancellor Dr. David G. Brown in Lipinsky Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Aaron Copland's "Appalachian Spring" will be among the works performed by the groups. In addition to "Appalachian Spring," the group will blend its traditional folk sounds with the classical sounds of the University Sinfonia in renditions including "I'm Bound for Glory Land," "Silver Creek," "Troublesome Creek Suite," and "Fine Times/Big Hill."

The second half of the concert will feature the McLain Family Band in their normal program.

"As we celebrate the installation of Chancellor Brown, it's appropriate that we honor our mountain heritage as well as UNCA's mission as a liberal arts university by bringing these two performing groups together," says Shirley Leckie, who chairs the UNCA installation planning committee.

The six-member McLain Family Band hails from eastern Kentucky. The group often performs at symphony orchestra "pops" concerts as well as festivals, fairs, colleges and universities throughout the country.

Tickets for the concert are $3 for the general public. Admission is free to the UNCA community.

THE McLAIN FAMILY BAND will begin installation festivities with a performance of original and traditional bluegrass music in honor of Chancellor David Brown.
