Poverty, continued from page one

tance grants and loans.

acting as the representatives of task of each simulation family is and local and state politicians fordable Housing Coalition work rently in a poverty situation. are in danger of foreclosure or "reversal of roles" because people eviction. The counselors work who are not affected by poverty with families to develop action assume the role of person in a plans, and if a family meets cer- poverty situation. The people tain criteria, they may be quali- affected by poverty in reality asfied to receive emergency assis- sume the role of a person not affected by poverty.

63-

KI

through emergency assistance the agencies are people who have to secure the basic necessities have been invited to participate funds. Counselors with the Affaced poverty before, or are curneeded to survive, and to main in the poverty simulation. tain shelter for one month, which with low-income families who Donahue said the simulation is a will be four, fifteen-minute weeks during the simulation. The simulation families are given a set of circumstances in which they must work to assure that their basic Asheville City Council, Bun- one. Donahue said the volunteers According to a brochure, the combe County Commissioners,

The purpose of the event, according to a brochure from the Affordable Housing Coalition, is to educate members of the community on the realities of poverty, and to help inspire participants to play an active role in Donahue said members of the achieving social justice for every-

Stargazing On The Quad

The UNCA Chapter of the Society of Physics Students will sponsor a free stargazing session from 8 to 10 p.m., Saturday, April 29, on the UNCA Quad. Telescopes will be available.

rain location: Highsmith Center...for more info call 251-624