Classes Cancelled April 25

UNCA classes scheduled from noon til 6 p.m. will be canceled April 25 for presentations of undergraduate research, artistic creations and other examples of student creativity and independent exploration of intellectual issues.

For more information, e-mail Kevan Frazier at kfrazier@unca.edu.

UNCA Professor Wins Award

Merritt Moseley, professor of literature and language, received the University of North Carolina Board of Governor's Award for Excellence in Teaching April 12.

Moseley's creativity in the classroom, scholarly achievements and commitment to students and the community were cited as reasons for his success.

UNCA Celebrates Heritage

April is Asian-American Heritage Month, and UNCA will have several events occurring on campus.

On April 20, there will be an Asian Dinner Special at the dining hall from 5 to 6:30 p.m.

Japanese Taiko Drumming, featuring Marco Leinhard, will occur at 6:30 p.m. in the Highsmith Center lounge April 20.

Poet Li-Young Lee will speak April 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Highsmith Center lounge. His latest book, "Winged Seed," is Lee's personal account of childhood exile and his father's political imprisonment. General admission is $5 at the door.

For more information, contact Octavia Wright at (828) 251-6671.
