Blues you can Use - Jason Howell

Who's that w/ a cell phone strapped to his torso?
My freshmen friend. He's tied down by overbearing parents who abuse technology to keep tabs on him.

What's that sursling sound?
It must be the pent up inhibitions college normally vents.

Why don't you just untie him?
Because the pressure is too great by now. He might burst out into a stereotypical college student rampage... Uh-oh, his parents are checking in.

Hello, Mr and Mrs... Umm, what popping sound?
AAAAAA
Set me a beer and a fraternity application.
Now!
