After a tight game against the Radford Highlanders, the UNCA Bulldogs pulled through with a final score of 66-64. Highlights of the game include Kevin Vanatta going for a layout as four opponents collapse in. MaCio Teague turned out to be the closing star of the game, scoring three shots in the last two minutes and a final 3-point shot with only 4.4 seconds left in the game. With this latest win, UNCA is now in sole possession of the first place title in the Big South Conference.
