

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TO RECEIVE TRAINING

S. S. Training School To Offer Several Courses to Rutherford Students.

The regular training school which is held each year at Rutherford College will begin on January 27, 1929. This school is one of the most important and beneficial attractions on Rutherford's program. All students are urged to take one of the courses offered. Several courses are arranged, and standard credits are awarded to all those who make a creditable grade. Dr. Paul N. Garber of Duke University will teach "The Spirit and Genius of Methodism." There is also a course offered on "The Problem of the Small Sunday School," or "How to Run a Small Sunday School." These courses are up to the present age of thought and are of vital importance to all who are interested in Church and Sunday School work. When the school opens in January why not make the attendance for Rutherford one-hundred percent?

MUSICAL PROGRAMME IS ENJOYED BY ALL

On Monday night, November 26, 1928, the students of the Music Department of Rutherford College rendered a most enjoyable program. The different selections furnished an evening of delightful entertainment. The program consisted of instrumental solos and duets, vocal selections, and recitations. A good crowd was present.

MR. FONG WILL GO TO CANADA FOR HOLIDAYS

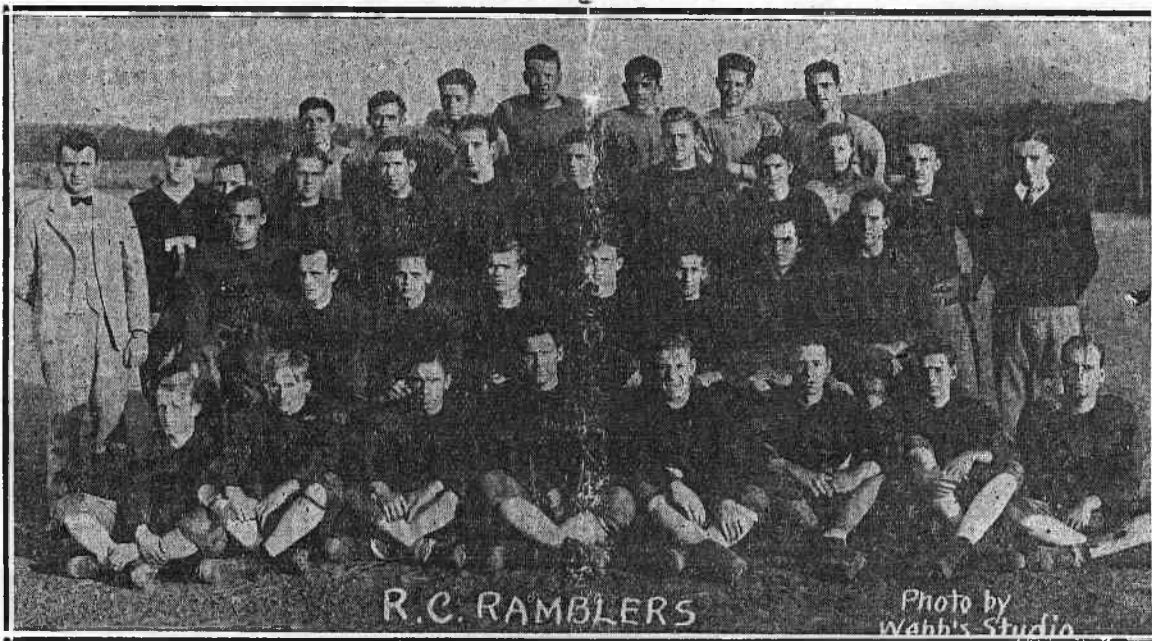

Mr. Fong will leave Rutherford Friday, December 21, for his home in Renfrew, Ontario. The trip is about nine-hundred miles and it will take some two or three days for the journey. Mr. Fong is the only Canada student at Rutherford, and Rutherford is proud to have him listed on the enrollment of the student body. Mr. Fong is a skilled student and handles his work in the most effective and satisfactory manner. It is hoped by both faculty and students that he will return to Rutherford to resume his college work.

KILLARNEY COLEENS APPEAR AT COLLEGE

The Killarney Coleens were here some time ago. They were very entertaining and the trombone and readings were much enjoyed by the audience. There was a good crowd present and all were very receptive, getting the most out of the evening of delightful entertainment.

Thieves stole a $400 painting from the University of California, leaving a Rembrandt worth $20,000 untouched. Which shows the importance of education.

GRANT IS POSSESSOR OF VALUABLE ANIMAL

Audrey Grant Has a $20,000 Cow Which Will Raise a Valuable Herd.

It was quite a pleasant surprise for the students of Rutherford College to learn that "Useless" Grant was the proud possessor of a $20,000 cow. This cow had taken several prizes at various shows, but until this time she was not so well known. At the recent fair Grant's cow took first prize in her class and immediately the owner was offered $20,000 for her. Grant says that he will not sell her, and that he is not afraid of her dying on his hands. He has her insured for the full amount, and is thereby protected against loss.

It was with regret that we learned of Grant's sickness last week, but we are glad to see him around the campus again.

Americans spend $287,000,000 a year for soap. There's no little boy in this country who couldn't think of a better use for all that money.

RUTHERFORD DOWNS MARS HILL IN GAME

Rutherford kicks off to Mars Hill downing them on their thirty yard line. The Blue Jackets fail to make a main and punt to the Ramblers, the ball being downed on the 50 yard line. Payne and Ward plunge through the line for first and ten. Payne runs again for first and ten. Smith makes a right end for first and ten. After the Ramblers had completed three consecutive first and tens the Blue Jackets intercepted a pass on their own twenty yard line and was downed on the line. Mars Hill then punts to Rutherford and the ball is down on the 50 yard line. The Ramblers then punt back to the Blue Shirts who are downed on their 35 yard line. Mars Hill punts again to Rutherford but the Ramblers do not return the punt, but Hunter passes to Ward who runs for a touch-down. The Ramblers failed to kick the extra point.

HUNT SELECTED NEW NAME FOR RECORDER

The Rutherford Rectangle Chosen As the Name to Replace The Recorder.

The Rutherford Recorder is history now, for as you will see from the beautiful masthead on the front page a new name and masthead has been designed for the college paper — The Rutherford Rectangle, and it will henceforth be known by this name.

This college publication is now in its third year and with this issue adopts a third name. "The Rutherford Breezes" was the style of the paper thru the first year of its existence. However, this name was not altogether satisfactory and with the beginning of the second year the name was changed to "The Rutherford Recorder." But this burdensome and unattractive heading ceased to meet the requirements to make the publication as neat, interesting and attractive as it should be. Since the beginning of this school year a new name has been under discussion.

It remained for Edwin B. Hunt, who hailed us this year from Reeds High School in Davidson county, to suggest the new name and design the masthead. The beautiful new masthead and name is an exact reproduction of the original drawing of Hunt, and is one that has met the keen approval of the staff, the faculty, and the student body as a whole. To Hunt, who is considered one of the best all-round students on the campus, goes the honor of naming and designing The Rutherford Rectangle.

ROPER WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT IN VOTE

Lynn Loy Won Over Laws In The Race for the Vice-Presidency.

A group of students met the other night and organized a local Anninias Club. It seems that they are making good headway. Charles Pinckney Roper was elected President and Lynn Loy polled over laws for the Vice-Presidency. Following are the political speeches made by the candidates:

Mr. Roper.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Roper has never been known to get out of a snail's gallop only when in contact with snakes; and the reader shall now have, in Pinckney's own style, an account of his flight from a coachwhip snake).

"I had a hog claim over beyant Moor's Fork, and I concluded I'd take old Bucksmasher (his rifle) and go inter the big hckleberry patch, on Round Hill, in sarch for 'um. Off I trolloped, and toddled about for some time, but couldn't find head nur tail uv 'im. But while I was moseyin' about, I cum right chug upon one uv the biggest, longest, outdaciousest coachwhip snakes Iuver laid my peepers on. He reared right straight up, like a May-pole, licked out his tarnacious tongue, and good as said, "Here's at you, sir. What bizness have you on my grit?" Now I'd hearn folks say ef you'd look a vinimus animal right plumb in the eyes he wouldn't hurt you. Now I tried it good, just like I were trying to look through a millstone. But, bless you, honey! he had no more respect fur a man's face and eyes than he had fur a huckleberry, sure's as a gun's iron. So I seed clearly that I'd have to try my trotters.

I dashed down old Bucksmasher, and jumped 'bout ten steps the fust leap, and on I went wusser nur an old buck fur 'bout a quarter, and turned my noggin round to look for the critter. Jehu Nimshi! there he were right dab at my heels, head up, tongue out, and read as a nail-rod, and his eyes like two

CHICAGO CONCERT CO. FEATURES AT SCHOOL

The Rutherford Rectangle Chosen As the Name to Replace The Recorder.

The Chicago Concert Company rendered a very excellent program here some few weeks ago which was very entertaining and amusing. The program consisted of musical selections, a reading, and an act in costume.

We were very fortunate in securing this high class entertainment. It was possible on account of the fact that their schedule was open on this night and their services were secured at much below their regular price.

Christmas Holidays Begin Dec. 21 and Continue Until January 2nd.

According to the college Calendar classes will discontinue work on December 21, Friday, at 12 M. for the Christmas holidays. Work will be resumed at 8 A. M. Wednesday, January 2. This allows eleven days absence from the scene of action. This is a time shorter than at most colleges and universities, but it is occasioned by the prolonged Thanksgiving holidays. Students will remember that all cuts taken immediately preceding and succeeding the holidays will count as double cuts. Pupils will also remember that if there is over eight cuts in any one course, they will not be eligible for examination, and will therefore be debarred from credit on such courses.
