

At Virginia Lodge

Virginia Lodge had the honor of having Mrs. Erenstine C. Milner of Guilford College at dinner Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Coltrane and Miss Shore were also guests at dinner Saturday. The girls enjoyed having them and hope that they will come again soon.

Thursday evening, January 17, the girls of Virginia Lodge held their weekly prayer service. Mary Lou Latham had charge of the program.

After a few songs, Octavia Latham gave the devotional. Gertrude Yarborough and Mary Lou Latham gave talks on prayer. Ellen Waddell sang beautifully the song, "Just a Whispered Prayer." A general discussion on prayer followed. The meeting closed with a song and a prayer by Ethel Kerr.

Miss Margret Slagle had, for a weekend guest, Miss Nanette Choate of Montreat College.

Tell-Tales

Leighton and Helen-Joe Jack and Mary-Bob and Ruth Dare-Jack and Satenik-Sylvester and Frank-V. J. and Ett-"Cotton" and Nell-C. W. and Harriet.

Marcho-"I want to marry a laundryman."

Ida-"It was a whopper-it went around in circles."

Frances Goforth-"I'm just a sentimentalist with a hard-boiled surface."

Bill Patton-"It's a weary world."

Ed Powell-"Wassel in a wood pile."

The excitement on second floor of the Biddie Coop Sunday night was caused by a rat that long. Avett grabbed the broom.

Public nuisances-Chaperones, street lights, Monday morning classes, campus and restrictions, goulash, long assignments, D's, pop test, people in love, too much rain, cracker crumbs, eggs, 6:30 bell, and chewing gum cracked.

Blessings-The 12:55 bell, trips to town, radios, hamburgers, permanents, long chapel programs, the orchestra, date nights, the tennis court, packages and letters, picture shows, the Clarion, kiss-proof lipstick, hot water, and sleep.

Hardee, Sisk, and one of the Crawfords walking to Asheville Sunday afternoon.

John, Evelyn, Gibbs, Harriet, and Bill taking pictures.

These girls who have "fair weather"

Five Questinos

How many can you answer?

1. What is astrophobia?
2. What country has no railroads or prisons?
3. What plant although it yields no food, drink, shelter, clothing, or ornament is used extensively in every country in the world?
4. What is called "The Old Lady of Thread Needle Street"?
5. What man never received a vote for President or Vice President yet lacked one vote of becoming President of the United States?

(Answers will be found on page four.)

Reno Wins Again

It was recently announced that John Reno "Brevard's famous farmer," has won the 4-H championship in corn raising by producing 119 bushels of corn on an acre at the cost of $29.65.

This record gives young Reno a one year scholarship to State College, which was offered by the Barret Company. Reno was far ahead in the contest, while the second prize winner raised only 107 bushels to the acre.

Reno was recently awarded a one-year scholarship to State College with the winning of his calf in the state 4-H calf contest.

curls.

Price sitting upstairs Saturday night. Don't ask her why. She practically burst into tears every time last Friday is mentioned.

Faculty hours in town from 4 to 6.

Mr. Cathey wandering around the campus with his loaf of "daily bread," trying to keep house until Mrs. Cathey comes back.

Boys and girls traveling to the hospital to see Alice Scott and Margaret George. We hope they are soon well and back with us.

Satisfaction GUARANTEED or Whiskers REFUNDED
Smith's Barber Shop, Main St.
30 years in the barber trade

LOOK FOR US IN THE POST OFFICE BUILDING
NEW THINGS CONSTANTLY
The Nobby Shoppe
Exclusive but not Expensive

Time, the Workman

By Leighton Presson

Time is a swift, swift workman
In making men forget—
A hero's been dead a short six months,
And there's hardly a soul to regret.

Time is a slow, slow workman
When love leaves its glowing embers
Her John has been gone these thirty years,
And still old Ann remembers.

Aye, Time is a swift, swift workman
When fame and glory depart;
But, Time is a slow, slow workman
When mending a broken heart.

Succotash

This and that: Everybody seemed to be favorably impressed with Mrs. Milner. At least she gave us quite a bit to think about. Anybody who saw "A Tale of Two Cities" without shedding at least a few tears just isn't human. Sickness seems to come in epidemics around this place. For a while no one is sick, and then about a half-dozen in each dorm become ill. A speedy recovery to everybody! Nothing is quite so appetizing as the aroma of coffee cooking.

Some of the following songs aren't very new, but nevertheless they just seem to fit:

Esther Jordan-"Lovely to Look At"

Ernest Pruett-"Lazybones"

Harriet-"Footloose and Fancy Free"
"Weary world"- "Throwing Stones at the Sun"

Lunette Cornwall-"Pardon My Southern Accent"

Jack Armstrong-"Dust off that Old Piano"

Susie Malonee-"Sophisticated Lady"
Francis Goforth-"A Little Bit Independent"

Mr. Williams-"Take a Number from One to Ten"

Eunice Arnold-"Curlytop"

Helen Avett-"Where Am I"?

Kat Black-"I Feel Like a Feather in the Breeze"

Brevard College weather man-"Stormy Weather"

Brevard College-"Settin' High on a Hilltop"

Red Henry studyng history on a date.
These early Sunday morning walks.

Patronize our Advertisers.
They are reliable.