

At Virginia Lodge

Dinner guests at Virginia Lodge on Wednesday evening, May 10, were Mr. Williams, Mr. Dendy, Odell Salmon, Paul Westbrook, Ted Wilson, Joe Nixon, Bobbie Rheinhardt, Hope Winecoff, and A. G. Sutherland.

The prayer service last week was led by Bessie Morrison. The program was on "Mother." It was effectively carried out by songs, devotional poems, a solo, and a talk on "What Mother Means to Me." Those taking part on the program were Bessie Morrison, Margaret Slagle, Nell Davenport, Margaret McKinney, and Miss Binford.

Girls away from the Lodge for the week end were Margaret McKinney, Bessie Morrison, Bessie McFadden, Virginia Henderson, Ellen Waddell, Edith Beard, Pauline Auer, and Nell Davenport.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and little daughter were guests at dinner on Sunday.

The parents of Mary Furr were visitors at the lodge Sunday.

Girls from the Lodge who went to Ross Hall Saturday night were Vivian Kreeger, Madeline Farthing, Lallah Mae Edwards, and Octavia Latham.

The parents of Muriel Heglar visited her at the Coltrane home Sunday.

Tell-Tales

What two girls on the third floor got boxes of candy last week-end?

Screwsy has a pet joke which she will gladly tell if you just ask her.

Louise, Sara Lou, A. M., and Woody had a perfect week-end, so they say.

Matt and Virginia have started what promises to be a very interesting affair.

Ett thinks that some girls have missed a lot.

Bernice studied so hard Sunday night that she has had a headache ever since.

Pat doesn't chew gum anymore.

John James didn't want to go to Hendersonville when Mary went home.

Frankie fell, but she didn't land in a pail of water.

That reunion in Asheville was a complete disappointment.

Beard has lost all interest in Odell.

Swaringen and Deal aren't on speaking terms.

Johnnie McLeod weighed the other day and the scales registered one hundred pounds, much to her sorrow. She thinks that she is too thin.

Ted, John, J. R., and Ward decided that from now on they will give up their tennis court to the girls, as it is the better court of the two.

All those who dated Saturday night had the grandest time. They went to the show chaperoneless.

Jack has decided to leave the girls alone. They've been bothering him too much lately.

Bobby has turned out to be a big bold man without a blush.

Virginia and Raleigh have broken up.

Coffey has lost all interest in the various triangles on the campus.

ural setting, they will be deprived of one of the most valuable things that Brevard has to offer.

On the Hill

The boys of Ross Hall defeated C.C. Camp, P. 66, Saturday at Camp Sapphire by the score of 13-6. The Ross Hall boys played good ball, considering their lack of practice. Heatherly hurled for the Hilltoppers, allowing only 3 scattered hits and fanning 10. All P. 66 runs were scored on errors.

Heatherly, besides his good performance on the mound, slashed out a triple and a single, driving in four runs and scoring two himself. A home run by Barbour in the second inning accounted for two more of the Hillers' tallies. Belk and Stevenson played errorless ball and connected safely twice each.

James Edwin Carlisle

By John Hoyle

Hail to Eddie Carlisle, President of Brevard Student Body! Eddie made his debut into this old world in March 1914, with a hoe in his right hand and a catcher's mitt on his left. His actions indicated a decided trend to the right until he reached high school and then the catcher's mitt got the upper hand. Eddie, as President of the Senior Class, graduated from Sunshine High School, Rutherford County, in 1932. Eddie is a Methodist and at eighteen had the distinction of being the youngest Steward ever to serve in his local church. After graduation Eddie farmed and during season played baseball for Spindale and Henrietta.

Since coming to Brevard he has served on the Taylor Hall Council and the Student Council; he is a Delphian and has served a term as President and another term as Secretary. Eddie is interested in baseball, Brevard College, campusology, and the Biddie Coop welfare. His symbol is the plow and hoe, and after acquiring his education Eddie thinks maybe he'll go back to his home in Bostic and farm. As to the feminine sex, Eddie is a great judge of pulchritude; he likes blonds and brunettes, and just loves red-heads.
