

Amateurs Will Perform April 17

Annual Photos Are Completed

It was announced last Wednesday by Leighton Presson, editor of The Pertelote, that all annual pictures, both group and individual, have been taken.

Mr. Cooksey, representative of the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company, Chicago, Illinois, was here Wednesday, March 31, for a conference with the Pertelote staff.

The engraving for the book will be done by the Jahn and Ollier Company; and the printing will be done by the Miller Press, of Asheville, N. C.

ANNUAL SPONSORS

Sponsors for the publication have been selected, and are as follows: Miss Edith Beard, W. C. U. N. C., sponsor for the Clarion; Miss Gussie Rose Pless, Canton, N. C., sponsor for the editorial staff of the yearbook; Miss Dorothy Bunch, Asheville, N. C., sponsor for the business staff of the yearbook; Miss Bernice Brantley, Mooresville, N. C., sponsor for the Student Council; Miss Evelyn Swaringen, Concord, N. C., sponsor for the Sophomore Class; Miss Ruth Brewer, Charlotte, N. C., sponsor for the Freshman Class; Miss Irene Parsons, North Wilkesboro, N. C., sponsor for the Clio-Uterpean literary societies; Mrs. Ellen Waddell Johnson, Hendersonville, N. C., sponsor for the Delphian-Mnemosynean literary societies; Mrs. Corrinna Rogers Brown, Charlotte, N. C., sponsor for the basketball team; Miss Mary Griffith, Winston-Salem, N. C., sponsor for the football team.

The sponsor for the baseball team has not, as yet, been selected but will be selected some time this week.

Flash!--Flash!--Flash!

Next week another issue of the College Bulletin will appear instead of the regular Clarion. This will be the Summer School issue.

Orders For Plaques Taken At Bookstore

Decorative plaques, which were shown to the student body in the auditorium last Wednesday, April 7, during assembly period, may be ordered from Mrs. McConnell at the college bookstore.

These plaques of the college seal are made of plaster of paris and may be secured either plain or colored. The plain plaques cost twenty-five cents, and the colored ones are thirty-five cents.

The plaques are made by the Glenn Cannon Art Works, of Pickens, South Carolina. An order will be sent in the first of next week. It will take approximately two or three weeks for the orders to be filled and delivered.

Library Gets Three Current Best-Sellers

Miss Shore recently announced that two new books, "Wake Up and Live" by Mrs. Dorothy Brande and "An American Doctor's Odyssey" by Dr. Heiser have been purchased with fees paid to the library on over-due books.

Last week Miss Craig presented the library with a collection of Bernard Shaw's plays; this book is the best collection of Shaw's works.

Several weeks ago the library was equipped with new book cases and a new card catalogue cabinet.

At present there are about 6,500 catalogued books in the library, and it is hoped that it will be possible to place an order for about one hundred books later in the spring.

Leaves School

Miss Willa Daughtry, who was the originator and writer of the column "Lodge or Dodge," recently withdrew from Brevard to continue school in King's Business College.

Debaters Will Meet Muhlenburg College

The Brevard College debaters will meet the debating team of Muhlenburg College, Allentown, Pennsylvania, in the college auditorium Thursday evening, April 22.

The debate query is Resolved: That Congress be empowered to enact minimum wage and maximum hour laws for industry. The Oxford-style debate will be used.

Brevard will debate the affirmative side of the question. Horace Raper and Paul Westbrook have been selected as two members of the team for this debate, and the third member will be selected early next week.

This will be the last inter-collegiate debate of the season for the college Debating Club.

Literary Societies To Play Ball Game

The Delphian and Cliosopic literary societies will engage in the first game of a three-game baseball series today on the college practice field.

Practices for the games were held this week under the direction of the coaches of the teams. James Ponder is coach for the Clios and Eddie Carlisle for the Delphians.

The Clios challenged the Delphians to play this series during the meetings of the societies last Friday night, April 2.

All members of the societies who are not on the week's baseball trip are eligible to play. Each society will buy a ball, and the winning team will receive both balls.

Probable pitchers for today's game are: Delphian—Albert Williams; Clios—Ralph Freffitt.

Last year only one game was played between the two boys' societies. It was the annual spring contest between the two groups, and the Clios won.

Love your work. Then you will find pleasure in mastering it.

Three Prizes To Be Awarded On Amateur Night

The Clarion staff will sponsor the second annual Amateur Night program in the college auditorium at seven-thirty o'clock on Saturday evening, April 17.

The contest is open to any member of the college student body. All entries are to be turned in by Thursday noon, April 15, to "Monk" Landreth.

Individuals, groups, or clubs may have an entry in the contest. All contestants will be given an audition, and only the fifteen best numbers will be presented on the program.

There will be a first, second, and third prize given to the acts which are adjudged best by three competent adults.

Tickets will be placed on sale Monday, April 12, by members of the Clarion staff. The admission will be ten cents.

This is the second annual Amateur Night in the history of Brevard College. The program last year was sponsored by the Freshman Class.

The money received from this program will be used to purchase cuts to be used in ensuing issues of the Clarion.

Special Program Is Planned For Vespers

A special program on "Friendship" has been arranged for the vesper hour Sunday evening at seven-thirty by Turner Feezor, who will be in charge of the program.

Special music and appropriate poems will be presented during the early part of the program. Thomas Hall will give a short talk, asking the question, "Do You Need Friends? What Kind?" There will be a short talk on "How to Win Friends," by Odell Salmon.
