

Brevard Nine Has Winning Season

Sport Slants

By Sturgis May

This is my last affair—

The last column that I will have the privilege of writing this year for the Clarion is the one that you are now reading. In this column I shall do my best to review the Brevard College sports since last September.

The first time that students at Brevard College will remember seeing our coach, Arthur J. Ranson, really sweat was at Wofford and Brevard game last fall, in which the Wofford Baby Terriers defeated the Tornado by a score 7 and 0. Ranson wanted his men to score when they were on the one-foot line and four downs to go, but the Wofford line proved too stable for Brevard to score a marker that afternoon. You will remember the day the Ranson men took their second victory of the season when they defeated Coach John MacKorell's eleven from Lees McRae Junior College at Banner Elk. The club that handed our football team their worst defeat of the season was the Mars Hill organization. The Baptists took the game with ease. Do you remember?

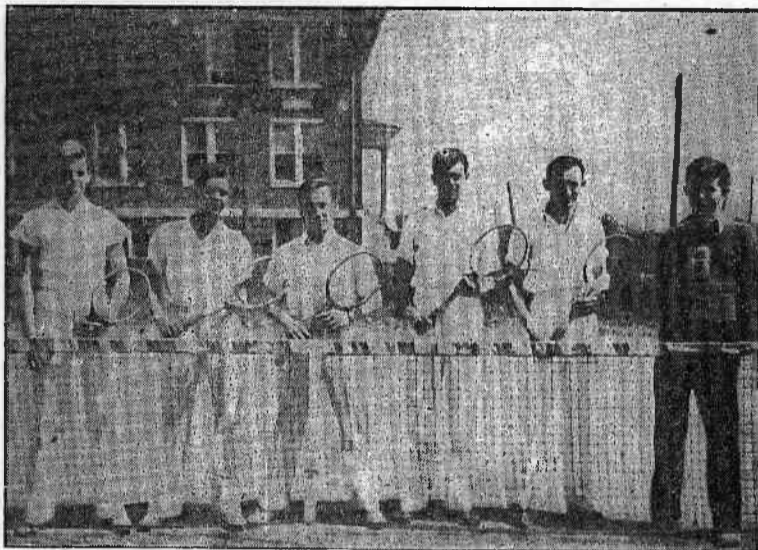

Do you remember when James O. Rogers, the bursar, was elected to captain the Brevard quintet early this spring? Rogers and the basket-ball team did not have as successful a season as they had expected, but they won half the contests that they played.

The old national pastime opened in April with very green material reporting to Coach Ranson, but out of this little material Ranson developed one of the best baseball teams that Brevard College can boast of.

Can you remember when John Wahonick left the Brevard campus to join the Rochester Red Wings at their camp in Leesburg, Florida?

Wahonick is at Rochester now,

Frank Cauble, flashy center fielder for the Brevard nine, led the Brevard team with the wilow this season, getting sixteen hits out of forty-seven attempts at the plate. Marshall Houts and Leon Stubbs followed with averages of 320 and 300.

but is not seeing much action with the International League team.

Last, but not least, we mention the Brevard tennis team and their record this spring. The Brevard netters lost to Mars Hill and Wingate and then defeated the Mars Hill netters in their last contest.

As a whole, Coach Ranson has furnished Brevard with better sports this year than was expected.

He: "May I kiss you?"
She: "Heaven, another amateur."

Wahonick Joins Asheville Club

John Wahonick, popular pitcher for the Brevard College nine for two seasons, was released by Rochester, of the International league, to the Asheville organization in the Piedmont League last Friday.

This will be John's first season in the Piedmont League. Last year he was a member of the Sacramento Club in the Pacific Coast League.

Wins 5 Games; Loses 4

Coach Arthur Ranson's Brevard College baseball team surpassed all other teams in Brevard College sports this year by winning five games and losing four in Junior Conference play to capture third place in Junior State standings.

Oak Ridge captured first place in the Junior Conference, with eight wins and two losses with league opponents. Presbyterian Juniors from Maxton placed second in the standings, with seven wins and three defeats. The winners of the Junior title and the Presbyterians each lost one game to Coach Arthur Ranson's men this year.

Mars Hill, Campbell, Boiling Springs, and Wingate were rated lower in the rankings this season than the other three members. Wingate was the only team in the league that failed to capture one conference game, while Boiling Springs won only one contest this season in conference play.

Mars Hill chalked up its third win of the season over the Brevard nine last Saturday at Mars Hill in a conference battle, which placed them fifth in the standings and dropped the Tornado nine from second place to the third position.

The Brevard nine started its season off with two defeats in the first week of play with the Junior members and then made a comeback, winning games over all teams in the conference that they played this season.

Brevard College's Record:
Brevard 7-3 P. J. C. 4-6
Brevard 5-5 Wingate 2-3
Brevard 2-9 Oak Ridge 8-7
Brevard 3- Boiling Springs -8
Brevard 11-0 Mars Hill 7-4

Captain Sinclair Deal won four games in conference play. Tweed and Lee each dropped two conference games. Cauble, Brevard center-fielder, led the hitting with an average of 340.

Play For Tanners

Frank Cauble, Eb Clayton, George Lee, Revis Frye, and Sinclair Deal have signed contracts to play with the Brevard Tanners baseball team here during the summer months.
