

PINE WHISPERS

Is everybody snowed or is that strictly the weather man's fault? Don and Eddy are at any rate, and don't wanna' be dug out . . . Notice that special look graduates Cowart and Estes got from Byrum and Pearson? Gonna' miss them I'll bet . . . We're sure Townsend's only reason for patronizing West is that he likes to dance, what you say, Bill? . . . Burdell, Billings and Mercer like bus rides, we betcha' . . . Johnny and Betty Lou are getting more and more that way about each other every day . . . He may not be exactly an Angel, Inez, but it looks from here as if he's flying pretty high.

Who's the unco-operative partner, "Cloudy" or Kit? We'd lay odds, we know . . . Looked good to see Kat and James together on the campus—see what marriage can do for you . . . Hey, Sawyer, are you really that way about McGill? . . . Evelyn and Marianne have some fun snow-balling the Marcuses . . . Say you'll take your chance, eh Bryson? . . . Who's the aggressor in the Cline-Setzer match? . . . 'tis heard it's not too hard to keep warm in

Tornadoes Drop Game To Biltmore

Brevard's Tornadoes dropped another close game Saturday night, February 7th., to the Asheville-Biltmore Bulldogs by the score of 56-46. The game was a much closer affair than the score indicates, and was every bit as exciting as the 39-38 victory the Tornadoes won from the Bulldogs in Asheville earlier this season.

"Bull" Morgan and Hugh Sizemore played their last game for the Blue and White, as both of them graduated this month. The loss of these two first-stringers will greatly lower the Tornadoes' chances in the forthcoming W.N.C. Tournament.

MR. AND MRS. WILSON TO LEAVE FOR U.N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Wilson are planning to leave Brevard the 25 of this month for the University of North Carolina, where Wilmer will work toward his degree in accounting.

Mrs. Wilson, the former Helen Crow, came to Brevard in September, 1946, and last year was on the faculty of the commercial department. This year she has assisted in the college offices. Wilmer came here in the summer of 1946, and graduated from the college division this week.

Bristol in spite of the coal shortage. Right Murphy? . . . Pennington had a visitor from Duke, but nothing serious we understand.

W. Rogers is not free as a "Byrd" by any means, but he doesn't seem to mind . . . Suttle sums it up in one word— ("Fog"ey) . . . A rare time was had by all at Fink's house, but definitely rare. . . . Taylor Hall, names need not be mentioned, will certainly miss "Speed" and Tucker . . . And as far as that goes, all of our grads are going to be missed and we hope they'll miss us too . . . Hey Duke, anything wrong? You've been doing an awful lot of "Beefing" lately . . . Poor "Shrimp" sure did get a lot of ribbing about her ankle . . . Mellard is doing her best—her very best—to make the new students feel at home . . . Manteo keeps close tag on Charlie, but kinda' think he likes it. . . . Dixie and Fred look oh so happy about the whole thing. The rings a beauty! . . . We hear newcomer Ed Chappell is cute—better look into it some of you lonesome lassies . . . Mary Mike got welcomed in fine style by Lomax—too bad he's not going to be around for a while. That's all for now kiddies—you can scratch around in this dirt 'til we see you again in print.

Exercises For Graduates Held

Graduation exercises for 25 college and nine pre-college students were held in the auditorium on Tuesday morning, February 10th.

The invocation was led by Rev. W. G. McFarland of the Brevard Methodist church. After the presentation of classes by Dean Stevenson, Professor Trowbridge delivered a brief address and awarded the diplomas. Dean Stevenson then announced the honors among the college graduates as follows: high honors, Jasper Donnell Dudley and William Darr Wise; honors, Wilmer Partee Wilson. In the pre-college division, Alma Faye Suttle and David Reagan Duncan graduated with high honors, and Ruth Elaine Ashworth with honors. The benediction was announced by Rev. Mr. Duncan of the Flat Rock circuit.

Music for the program was furnished by Mrs. Louise P. Miller and Mr. Malvin N. Artley. Marshals were Kenneth Gouge, Edna Norton, Alvan Martin, Arnold McPeters and Nancy Ingram.
