

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

CHRISTIAN WORKERS' CLUB

The Christian Workers' club is probably the largest and most active club on the campus. At their last meeting Tuesday night attendance was well around the sixty mark. The club meets every Tuesday and has had two meetings thus far this year. They follow the program of promoting Christian fellowship by dividing their meeting into two half-hour periods. The first half is devoted to religious and business affairs while the remainder of the program is given over to recreation in which everyone takes part.

Officers for this year are: Jim Underwood, president; Betty Lawrence, vice-president; and Inez Elledge, secretary and treasurer.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

One of the most interesting clubs on the campus, the IRC club tends to acquaint the student with the political situations of the world. During the meetings, which are held the first and third Thursdays of each month, the members discuss problems of the world and national concern. A ten dollar prize is awarded the most outstanding member of the club each year.

Officers for the IRC are as follows: Jack Bennett, president; Hugh Seay, vice-president; and Inez Elledge, secretary and treasurer.

DELPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

One of the two men's societies at Brevard, the Delphian Literary Society will meet tomorrow during chapel period to hold elections and make their plans for the year. A Valentine dance has already been planned and the Delphians hope to increase recreational and social activities on the campus this year.

BETTY LAMP CLUB

The Betty Lamp club, a home economics club for girls, wishes to welcome all new students and invite them to a social tomorrow night; place to be announced. This year the club plans to be more active than in the past and provide fun along with club work.

Those holding offices in the club are Marianne Gingele, president; Evelyn Morlock, vice-president; Betty Gray Billings, secretary; Glenna Higgins, treasurer; Virginia Faucette, reporter; and Corinne McClure, photographer.

BAILAR CLUB

Organized last year, the Bailar (which in Spanish means "to dance") club has grown into one of the most popular groups in school. The object of the club is to teach dancing and have much fun in the process. This year they intend to teach the South American, regular straight dancing, and "let my legs do crazy eights" or jitterbugging. Last year the members developed their own version of the shag which everyone will agree is pretty sharp. They plan to sponsor a Thanksgiving and Christmas dance and also to put on the May Day festivities which they did last year. But their main objective is to cut a wide path in the forests of the weak, "But I don't know how to dance."

Meetings are held every Thursday night in West Hall at 6:30. Frank Roberts is president and other officers are to be elected later.

CLIOSOPHIC LITERARY SOCIETY

Planning to lean more to the literary side this year, the Cliosopic Literary Society met last Wednesday for the first time this year and made several plans for the coming term. Inter-club debates and another minstrel were discussed and social committees ap-

Training Officer Visits Monthly

The Veterans Administration has named John F. Williams, of Waynesville, as the veterans' training officer for Brevard and surrounding areas. Mr. Williams will make monthly visits to Brevard to talk with veterans who have a problem or who need advice.

His first visit will come some time during October and any vet who wants to talk over his schooling or subsistence should contact him.

Last year the training officer for Brevard proved invaluable in aiding veterans. Any change in status or withdrawal from school must be reported to the administration immediately to insure correct procedure under the G. I. Bill, VA stated.

Each year the names of the two most outstanding members of the club are engraved on the Cliosopic trophy.

Officers for this year are: Jim Underwood, president; Walter Rogers, vice-president; and Lander Beal, secretary-treasurer.

VETERANS' CLUB

Claude Hicks, last years president of the Veterans' club has announced that a meeting of the club will be called in the near future. The club has a new constitution and the outlook is for a big year. A dance and several suppers at Gaither's were given last year and there are plans for a similiar program this time. Officers for the club will be elected at the first meeting.

EUTERPEAN LITERARY SOC.

The Euterpeans, sister society of the Clios, met last Wednesday to formulate plans for the year and elect officers. They look for a larger organization than ever before and plan to have activities for the girls such as were carried out last year.

MNEMOSNYNEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The sister society of the Delphians, the Mnemosnyneans, will meet tonight to elect officers for the coming year. Plans for this term will also be discussed. The club hopes to promote social activities on the campus, Patsy Casteen, president of the organization, announced.

FOLK GAMES CLUB

Popularizing the long-famous square dance, the Folk Games club will meet tonight for the first time this year at 6:15 in the back room

Davis Dance Band Ready For Season

A larger and better Bob Davis Dance band will make its appearance at Brevard sometime in the near future and will include, in addition to a 13 piece orchestra, a vocal group of six voices.

After vacationing during the summer, the band has reorganized and has been holding rehearsals and auditions for the past two weeks. One of the top musical combinations in Western North Carolina last year, the band has already started booking engagements and will be available all year.

Bob, in his fifth year as a band director, prefers the full orchestra type of arrangements and goes for the Stan Kenton type of music along with slow, sweet ballads. He has had several years' experience in Gastonia with his own orchestra.

All members of the band are Brevard college students and number 18 in all. Jack Prince and Lois Stratton will be on the vocals, supported by a vocal group consisting of "Sonny" McCormick, Bill Martin, Buddy Mackie, Charlie Freeman, and Frank Roberts, arranger. On the saxes will be Bob Davis, Bill Duckworth, Jim Wofford, and Frank Roberts. J. C. Grose and Tommy Day on the trombones, Thurman Rogers, Eugene King, and Carl Guin on the trumpets, and Wayburn Houck and Hugh Griffith in the rhythm section, make up the orchestra.

This year the band intends to play for clubs and other schools as well as for dances held at Brevard.

Memorial Infirmary Is Great Asset

The Mary Frances Stamey Memorial Infirmary, in the charge of Miss Vera Ault, college nurse, is the latest building to be completed in the one and one-half million dollar expansion program now in progress at Brevard, and school officials point out that the infirmary is a great asset to the institution here.

Built at a cost of more than $30,000, the infirmary is a memorial in honor of Mary Frances Stamey, former student at Brevard who died in 1946 after service in the air corps. The building, located on the northeast corner of the campus, has room for eighteen patients and is equipped with an isolation ward and fracture bed. In the downstairs there is a reception room, clinic, and kitchen, while two wards and a private room make up the upper floor.

Opened during the summer term, the infirmary has already had several patients all of whom remarked on the beauty and comfort of the structure.

of West Hall basement. The club is for having a good time dancing and to help the college have a well-rounded program of activities. They are planning to have two big dances this year, one in the fall and another in the early spring. Elections will be held at the meeting tonight.
