

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

By FRED TAYLOR

The Campus Camera Club

The Campus Camera Club will be re-organized soon; and, because of the large number of enthusiastic students, or "shutter bugs," on the campus, the club should be very active in its own right. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in the rapidly growing field of photography on the campus and to provide an economical means of developing and finishing pictures for the students and for The Clarion and The Pertelote.

Veterans Club

The Veterans club met October 6 and acting president Claude Hicks conducted an election of officers for this year. Ray Delapp was chosen as president for 1948-49; and working with him will be Robert Whittle, vice-president, and John McKissick, secretary-treasurer.

The immediate plan of the club is to raise money to pay the debt left from last year.

Bailar Club

In the regular meeting Monday night the Bailar Club completed its slate of officers by electing "Sissy" Suttle as vice-president Jack Bennett as secretary, and Jane Setser as treasurer.

President Frank Roberts also appointed a committee to be responsible for opening the West Hall recreation room after supper, one to provide music for the evening recreation and dances which will be sponsored by the club, and one for decoration of the gym for the formals.

Cliosopic Literary Society

On Wednesday evening, October 6, Mr. Ralph Fisher, a prominent Brevard lawyer, spoke to a joint meeting of the Cliosopic Literary society and the Veterans club. This interesting program was arranged by the Clios, and the group plans to sponsor others of equal popularity during the year.

Betty Lampe Club

Virginia Faucette, Dorothy Calloway, and Miss Katherine Stamey attended a meeting of the Province Workshop at the Barringer Hotel in Charlotte last week-end as representatives of the Brevard college home economics department.

Girls' Societies

Euterpeans, everyone had a fine time.

Some of the "torture" which the new girls had to go through included wearing extremely loud clothes, lamp shades for hats, onions around their necks, shoes of different shapes, and either an "E" or "M" painted on their faces with lipstick. Old members of the clubs were in their glory, the new girls having to obey their every command.

Initiations at Brevard are an annual affair for the two girls' societies and also for the Delphians, one of the two mens' societies on the campus. Only the Cliosophics, abiding by an old tradition, do not hold initiations for new members.

Lacy "Sonny" McCormick president of the Delphians, says that initiation of new members will be held sometime next week.

The group consisted of forty-five students of home economics clubs of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the members with the organization and activities of other clubs and to arouse enthusiasm.

The next meeting of the Betty Lampe club will disclose further details of the workshop and all girls are invited to this meeting as well as the others which are of a recreational and educational nature.

OH, MOUNTAINS MINE!

Oh! Thy paramount beauty—thy boundless majesty!
Oh, thy pure eternal wisdom—thy deep integrity!
Oh, thy contours everlasting—thy patience so sublime:
I cling to thee, I cling to thee—
Oh, mountains mine!
Oh, the peace and hope you harbor—worldly faults and vice forgiven;
Thou art holy, thou art perfect—could there better be in heaven?
Oh, thy joys and endless sorrows—thy silence so divine;
I cling to thee, I cling to thee—
—Oh, mountains mine!
