To Play West Georgia College At Griffin, Ga.; Line-up Is Given

The Tornadoes of Brevard college will travel to Griffin, Ga., this week end to open the 1949 grid season with the West Georgia college aggregation on Saturday night.

Coach Bob Andrews says he expects to take three teams to Georgia for the important opening encounter, and he doesn't know what to expect out of the Georgia eleven. "In fact, we don't know what to expect out of our own boys," the head coach stated yesterday.

Reporting on the line, Coach Bob Swicegood says the Tornadoes are still ragged in practice sessions. "Maybe it is still too early in the season to say so, but our blocking is off and our tackling is poor," Swicegood declared.

Running from a single wing along with the split "T," the Tornadoes are expected to give the Georgia team some trouble, offensively. Brevard's opponents operate strictly from the tricky "T."

The Brevard probable starting line-up will be as follows:

- LE—Jack McCauley
- LT—Jim White
- LG—James Barker
- C—Jim Daniel
- RF—Bruce Jamerson
- RT—Clyde Pitts
- RE—William Miller
- Q—Carlton Robinson
- LH—Ebby Wilkerson
- RH—Chester Baker
- FB—Bob Earnhardt
