

Around The Campus

Brevard—"The Land Where the Water Falls"—got a nice dose of H2O in a fluffier form the first days of February when the early risers got up one morning and found the ground covered with snow and little flakes still falling. Old Man Winter certainly made the campus a wonderland for a few days, and MARY GRACE NANCE, MARTHA WASHAM, H. C. MITCHUM, ART THOMPSON, BILL BASS, and other warriors found the snow in front of West Hall especially good for packing snowballs.

Out on the other side in front of Taylor, PAT and CAROL CARTER, B. J. EVANS, HELEN COBLE, and DAPHNE BOWERS engaged in a more harmless pursuit by putting their artistic talents together to make Mr. Snowman of 1951. A few overly ambitious snow fiends found it a little hard to retain their equilibrium on icy sidewalks, and HELEN HAYES told us that a snowdrift made a very soft, though rather cold seating arrangement.

The thermometer just won't stay nice and normal, and two days after the snow was gone, Old Sol shone so hard that the temperature warmth brought symptoms of shot way up. This pre-season spring fever which blossomed out in hiking for the energetic and just "settin' in the sun" for the lazy ones. By the way, if you ever plan to cross the Alps, take FLETCH MARTIN for a guide. He always knows what's across the next mountain before any one else does. Here is a tip for would-be mountain climbers: JIM BARKER, TOM ROBERTS, JIM DILLARD, and BERNIE WELCH declare that boots are the thing for climbing snowclad peaks. As for just sitting in the sun, HAROLD TOLBERT and JEAN ARLEDGE like that form of recreation.

New girls, BETTY LINEBERRY and GINGER FOOTE, appeared to be having a gay time with JOE JACK WELLS and RAYMOND UNDERWOOD at the Delphian Valentine dance. Speaking of the dance, BAM BAM PEELE looked very happy to have ELEANOR ORR up from Charlotte for that week-end. ELEANOR came up with SHIRLEY and BRUCE JAMERSON, who visited on campus and in Asheville.

Those ear-splitting shrieks you heard on the morning of Friday the ninth belonged to DOTTIE GAY ROCKWOOD. JOHN RANDALL arrived on campus from Smyrna, Tennessee, where he is stationed.

We saw MAX McCracken on campus last week. MAX says the the lazy man's life he is leading

Reception Given In Taylor After Concert

The administration entertained at a reception in Taylor Hall on Monday night after the Warren Lee Terry concert. Dean Lee Pylant was hostess at the affair sponsored by President Ehlhardt.

Punch bowls and tea tables decorated the office and private parlor of Taylor. Misses Carolyn Hamilton, Ellen Faulkner, Alice Leggett, and Norma June Merritt served as assistant hostesses at the reception. All concert-goers were invited to the affair.

these days is making him fat.

The girls in Taylor got a lovely Valentine from BILL BALDWIN, who is at P. J. C. Other Brevard students at P. J. C. are DON HOGWOOD, CECIL WILKINSON, BRUCE ROWE, and FRANK ELLERBE. Good luck, boys!

A little bird told me that at Taylor's Valentine party, the girls played "hopeful hearts" and that most of the fortunes read: "Find the man of your dreams and get married." Girls! What are you saying?

The rec hall seems to be well populated these days. Perry Combs' recording of "If" is the number one song, and CAROLYN HAMILTON and TOM NEAL are usually to be found dancing to it. JEAN EAKER and RAYMOND UNDERWOOD have worked out some fancy new shag steps, too.

Ping-pong still draws a crowd. ART THOMPSON, REID LUCKEY, HOWARD MacINTOSH, and ALLEN ANGEL are all ace players. H. C. MITCHUM likes to team up with MARY GRACE NANCE for doubles. MARTHA WASHAM has a wicked serve, and we do mean wicked!

Students Give $50 To Loyalty Drive

Intending in this way to show their appreciation for the chamber of commerce sponsored loyalty drive now in progress in Brevard, the students of Brevard college contributed $50 to the fund through attending a program sponsored by the Student Government association in the college gymnasium on the evening of February 22.

The program of the evening was two-fold. During the first phase, the students saw motion pictures of the latest May Day celebration at Brevard college and of last season's Brevard-Mars Hill football game. The films, loaned for the occasion by Mr. Henry Henderson, of Brevard, were shown by Mr. Hugh Hollifield.

After the pictures, the faculty and administration of the college performed in a series of skits written and directed by Loise Moseley, of the department of physical education. These skits, grouped under the title of A SHAKESPEAREAN BASKETBALL GAME, were burlesques reminiscent of plays such as HELZAPOPPIN and YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU.

TERRY DELIGHTED WITH BREVARD AND APPRECIATIVE CROWD

In conversation with Clarioneers after the concert, Mr. Terry remarked, "I am delighted to be in Brevard and don't know when I've had a nicer reception." The famous baritone spoke highly of President Ehlhardt, saying, "Your college is fortunate to have such a young and ambitious president."

"The audience was most kind," Terry continued. "If you will receive the remaining guests in your series as you have accepted me, each will open his heart to you."
