The Tornadoes have drawn the curtain on a successful basketball season. At the start of the season the team looked like anything but a ball club in losing five straight conference games. After these defeats, however, the boys turned the tables and won seven out of nine tilts. Toward the end of the season the Brevard Tornadoes were considered one of the best teams in the conference. Their best game of the entire season was played at the tournament in Kings Mountain, where the team dropped a thriller to Gardner-Webb, losing by only five points.

JACK MCCAULEY . . . Jack was the best all-around player on the team. He played his best game against Spartanburg, the game in which he scored 27 points.

CHARLES BREWER . . . Charles was called the fast break artist. He was also noted for his set shots. Teamed up with McCauley, Brevard had two of the best forwards in the conference.

EBBY WILKINSON . . . Ebby was known as the best floor man on the quint. He is given credit for having kept the Tornadoes under control many a rough night. He was a valuable defensive guard.

BONNER YORK . . . "Most valuable player on the team," said Coach Bob Andrews. Besides being a fast guard, Bonner could always be counted on to pull down a lot of rebounds for the Tornado team.

BERNIE WELCH . . . Bernie improved more than any player on the team during the season. He became a set shot artist, and was also a good team man.

KENNY DAVIS . . . Kenny was the Tornadoes' tall center who possessed an almost unfalterable hook shot. He shot from under the basket with ease.

Captains Named In Various Sports By Association

The Woman's Athletic association has recently appointed captains of soccer, speedball and field hockey teams. The tournaments for these sports will be run off immediately after the basketball tourney has been completed. The second round of basketball games for the women is in progress this week. Games are scheduled for Monday night and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons.

The Mars Hill Athletic association for women has extended to the WAA of Brevard an invitation to attend "play day" on their campus during the spring. Miss Add Lea Morgan, director of physical education for women, has plans for sending entries in soccer and archery to Mars Hill for the events.

All Absences Must Have An Infirmary Excuse, Ault Says

Miss Vera Ault, college nurse, has announced that she will not give any excuses for absences from class unless the persons come to the infirmary when they are too ill to attend classes. She also announced that the students who do not attend breakfast regularly should be sent to the infirmary by the dean or housemother in charge of the dormitories because they are not physically able to attend their classes unless they eat a balanced diet.

The nurse also wishes it to be announced that the students should not congregate in the dormitory rooms any more than is absolutely necessary, and that they refrain from going to the movies so often in order that they might avoid any contacts with flu and other contagious diseases.

Brevard Lost To Lees - McRae In Tournament Play

The Brevard college Tornado basketball team was eliminated in the opening game of the regional play-offs at Davidson on Wednesday night, March 8.

Lees-McRae was the winner of the game, of which the score at final count was 71 to 58.

The regional tournament is being played to name a representative to the National Junior College basketball tourney which will be played in Hutchinson, Kansas.

In the other game played at Davidson that same night, Wingate college won on a forfeit from Edwards Military Academy.

It was 3 o'clock in the morning and the officer was rather suspicious of the man in evening clothes who walked slowly across the road, crossing and recrossing.

"Out rather late, aren't you?" he asked.

"A little late," agreed the man, "but it's the only chance a pedestrian has these days."
