BREVARD COLLEGE, APRIL 16, 1951

Number 7

Theme Of May Day Is "Robin Hood"

Jody Schaeffer Is Elected Queen

Bernie Welch, president of the student government of Brevard college has issued the statistics of the recent May Queen election. Welch stated that the voting in the election was so close that had it not been for the majority clause in the new constitution, the voting would have been held again, because there was a difference of only two or three votes for all candidates.

Out of five candidates for May Queen, Miss Joann Schaeffer received the highest number of votes. Miss Martha Bishop received the second highest number, which, according to the constitution, placed her as Maid-of-Honor.

After the announcement of the winner, Welch asked that the members of each class meet separately for the purpose of electing their representatives as attendants in the May Court. Out of the freshman class Betty Lineberry, Peggy Waller, Ellen Faulkner, and Carol Carter were elected as attendants. From the sophomore class Anne Lewis, Marty Gibbs, Jean Arledge, and Norma Jean Williams were elected.

The May Day program, under the direction of Miss Louise Mosley, is based on the story of Robin Hood. Alice Leggett will have the part of Robin Hood, and Betty Jean Evans will take the part of the Maid Marion. The members of the girls physical education classes will participate in the dances planned for the program. The costumes are now being made for the program and are to be in green and yellow.

"Everybody's Crazy" is a farce in three acts by Jay Tobias. The play takes place in the lobby of the "ghost" hotel that three college boys have bought. The boys purchased the hotel with the intention of making money in order to splurge during their last year in college.

The Phi Theta Kappa held its tapping ceremony in chapel Friday. Those tapped into the chapter were Mary Dean, Lawson Bingham, Bernie Welch, Carol Carter, Richard Hodson and Alice Leggett.

Students To Vote For Student Government Officers April 19

April 19 and 20 will be red-letter days on the college calendar. Student body elections will take place on the 19, and the results will be announced on April 20.

Student Body President Bernie Welch announced in chapel on April 5 that the new procedures for announcing candidacy and for voting will go into effect in this year's elections.

To be an eligible candidate, a student must have declared his intention in a written petition signed by 18 students. These petitions were turned in to Mary Alice Hollifield, secretary-treasurer of the student body, by Friday, April 13. In a call meeting, the student council will approve such candidates as meet the requirements stated in the constitution.

A list of candidates will be presented to the student body over the week end. The officers to be elected are a president, a vice president, and a secretary-treasurer of the student government; a social chairman, who will be in charge of the social calendar; an editor and a business manager of the PERTELOTE; and an editor and a business manager of the CLARION.

Voting will take place in one of the basement rooms in Taylor Hall. Members of the student council will be on duty at the polls and at entrance and exit doors of the dormitory at all times on the day of election. Winners will be announced within a 24-hour period after the polls close.

The new voting procedure in which voters state first, second, and third choices prevents the need for a run-off in case of a tie.
