

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES ARE ON SUNDAY

Student Body Elections Held With Harrison Chosen As New President

Following a week and a half of flaring campaigns, brilliant posters and outstanding orations by aspiring candidates and their supporters, the Student council presented these proposed officers for student body election on April 24. Wilburn Harrison was named president, defeating Bobo McMakin and Ellen Faulkner. Harrison's votes doubled the number obtained by the other two candidates. Elected as vice-president was Joe Hipps, who defeated Carolyn Hamilton. By a slight margin, Jane Ann Hart won the office of secretary, opposing Betty Lineberry.

Wilburn Harrison, newly-elected president of the student body, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry R. Harrison, Walkertown. He is a member of the dean's list and art editor of the CLARION.

Vice-president Joe Hipp is son of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Hipp of Charlotte. He is, additionally, a member of the Christian Fellowship club, Delphian Literary society and dean's list.

The council's new secretary, Jane Ann Hart, is a town student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hart. She is president of the Baptist Student union, and a member of the Christian Fellowship club, the Euterpean Literary society and the International Relations club.

Rachel Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Ira F. Vance, filled the newly-created office of social chairman. She is a member of the Mnemosynean Literary society, Glee club and Christian Fellowship club.

CLARION and PERTELOTE Editors Are Also Chosen

In the final run-off the new editors and business managers of the CLARION and PERTELOTE staffs were unchallenged.

Tom Neal, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Neal, Greensboro, was named CLARION editor. He is associate editor of the CLARION, a member of Cliosophic Literary society, dean's list, Sigma Pi Alpha, Glee club and International Relations club.

—Turn to Page Four

Alumni Reunion To Bring Many Guests

The Brevard College Alumni association will hold its annual meeting in the newly renovated auditorium in Dunham Hall May 26 at 2:30 p. m., and the alumni who wish to do so may remain overnight on the campus. Dr. E. H. Nease, Charlottee district superintendent of the Methodist church, will be guest speaker.

The Rev. R. Delbert Byrum of Murphy, president of the Alumni Association, will be guest speaker.

—Turn To Page Ten

Joe Hipp

Vice President of the Student Government

Student Council To Publish Handbook;

The Student council of the Student Government association is sponsoring the publication of a handbook which will be available by the end of May, according to Anne Lewis, editor, and Clarence Blythe, business manager.

The handbook, which will be sent to each student sending an application for admittance for the fall semester, will contain the constitution, the social regulations, the point system, the demerit system, a synopsis of all recognized campus organizations, a map of the campus, the school song, and some school yells. This information will cover approximately 24 pages.

The cover for the booklet will be a scene lifted from the campus and etched by Wilburn Harrison. The recently erected sign at the front entrance is the central point. The colors for the cover are blue and white.

Wilburn Harrison

President of Student council

Jane Ann Hart

Secretary-Treasurer of Student Council

SUMMER SCHOOL OPENS JUNE 18

Dean Stevenson has announced plans for a 9-week summer session. Classes will start June 18 and continue through August 18.

A student may register for a maximum of 9 hours. There will be 10 instructors to teach courses in the following departments: English, mathematics, science, religion, history, political science, art, and music.

The college has planned several interesting trips in connection with the summer session. Plans have been completed for trips to

—Turn To Page Ten

Ehlhardt Speaks On Program; Choir Sings

Commencement exercises for 70 candidates for graduation will be held May 27 at 4 p. m. in the James Addison Jones library. The Rev. George Brinkmann Ehlhardt will award the diplomas and give the commencement address, which will be broadcast over radio station WPNF.

The commencement ceremonies will culminate a full weekend for 43 girls and 27 boys, of whom 8 are residents of Brevard and Transylvania county.

Originally scheduled for the same time was the inauguration of President Ehlhardt, which had to be postponed because of lack of housing accommodations for visitors.

GLEE CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM OF MUSIC

Presenting a program of music for the activities will be Prof. Bruce A. Livengood, Prof. Francis B. Price, and Brevard College Glee club. The concert will feature Mr. Livengood, head of the music department, at the organ to play "Prelude on Christ Whose Glory Fills the Skies" (Edmendonson) and a march "Tannhauser" (Wagner). Mr. Price, voice instructor, will sing "Built on a Rock" (Christiansen). The Glee club will sing "Now Let the Full-Toned Chorus" (Bedell); "Hallelujah, Amen" (Handel). Miss Susan Graham, instructor in piano, will be accompanist.

ALUMNI, TRUSTEES VISIT ON CAMPUS

Included in the activities of the weekend will be the annual meeting of the Brevard College Alumni association, a Glee club concert, and a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the college. Immediately following the graduation exercises on Sunday, students and their parents will be guests at a buffet supper in the college cafeteria.

Marshals Named By Mr. Ehlhardt

The Office of the President has named the following students as marshals for commencement exercises: Sarah Carol Carter, chief; Perry Wilburn Harrison, Mary Louise Dean, David Wellington Johnson, Jr., and Carl Clifford Outen.

Chosen as marshals are those having the five highest averages among the undergraduates. Chief is the person with the highest average.