

Congratulations,
Graduates!

Clarion

No Summer School,
this year!

Volume XVIII

BREVARD COLLEGE, MAY 31, 1952

Number 7

Commencement Ceremony Here Is On June 9th

Trowbridge Portrait Unveiled At Special Service Here June 8

Unveiling of a portrait of Professor C. H. Trowbridge, vice president emeritus of Brevard college, will be solemnized in the college James Addison Jones library here Sunday, June 8, at 4:00 p. m.

The Rev. Cecil G. Hefner, pastor of the First Methodist church in Lincolnton and a member of the Brevard college board of trustees, will present the portrait to the college. The Rev. Mr. Hefner is a graduate of Brevard Institute.

Dean J. J. Stevenson, Jr., acting president of the college, will accept the portrait and deliver appropriate remarks.

Representatives from Brevard Institute, Weaver college and Brevard college, all institutions which Prof. Trowbridge has served, will speak at the ceremony. Representing Brevard Institute is Joseph Whisnant, of Shelby; Weaver college, Carlyle Rutledge, of Kannapolis; Brevard college, Lois Frazier, of Brevard.

Included in the ceremony will be special music by Francis B. Price, baritone soloist and voice instructor at the college.

Elizabeth Bridges, young granddaughter of Mrs. J. M. Allison, Sr., of Brevard, will unveil the portrait. Mrs. Allison attended the institute on the first day of its opening.

Following the unveiling service, an informal reception will be given in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Trowbridge in the college formal gardens. A large number of the Trowbridge family is expected for the occasion.

Kenneth Harris Is Painter

The Trowbridge portrait, given to the school by the alumni of the parent institutions of Brevard college—Brevard Institute and Weaver college—was painted by Kenneth Harris, an alumnus of Brevard Institute.

Harris has had exhibitions of his work shown throughout the south. His numerous awards of merit include the coveted award by the American Society of Graphic Arts. He has been commissioned to do paintings for industry and for the U. S. army. He has also been appointed official painter for "Colonial Williamsburg" by the Williamsburg Restoration.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harris and the brother of Mrs. Walter Duckworth, of Brevard.

Work Of Trowbridge

Prof. Trowbridge is known in the South as an authority on mountain education. He was president of Brevard Institute, and later president of Weaver college; and is now vice

—Turn to Page Two

Commencement Speakers Here

REV. CECIL W. ROBBINS

REV. WILLIAM ARTHUR KALE

Kale And Robbins Are Speakers; Glee Club Sings Sunday

Activities for Commencement week at Brevard college were announced here today by Dean J. J. Stevenson, Jr., acting president of the college.

The Reverend William Arthur Kale, pastor of the Brevard college Board of Trustees, will deliver the address to the graduates at the commencement service. The service will be held in the Dunham Hall auditorium of Brevard college on Monday morning, June 9.

The sermon to the graduates will be delivered by the Reverend Cecil Robbins, editor and manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The sermon will be presented at the regular Sunday morning service, June 8, at 11:00 a. m., in the First Methodist church here. According to Prof. Bruce Atkins Livengood, head of the college music department, a special group from the college choir will sing at the morning service.

Glee Club Concert

The 50-voice college Glee club will offer a concert of sacred and secular numbers in the Dunham Hall auditorium, Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m. Prof. Livengood will direct the group, and Miss Susan Graham, instructor in piano at the college, will accompany the Glee club.

Included in the week end activities will be the unveiling of a portrait of Vice President Emeritus Carl H. Trowbridge. The ceremony will be in the James Addison Jones library on June 8.

Additional plans will be released to students later, President Stevenson stated.

Candidates for graduation include the following students:

Joseph Lawson Bingham, Florence Marie Bishop, Archie Doye Cannon, Sarah Carol Carter, William James Carter, Mary Louise Dean, Melba Dean Eller, Betty Jean Evans, Lola Ellen Faulkner, Lowery Odell Ferguson, Jr., Rachel Mae Franklin, Kenneth Cicero Furr, Jr., Nancy Luella Hager, Carolyn Lucille Hamilton, Perry Wilburn Harrison, Bonnie Fay Hawkins, Joe Robert Hipp, Jack LeRoy Holder, David Wellington Johnson, Jr., Alice Blanche Leggett;

Also, Ansel Bobo McMakin, Jr., Fletcher Willis Martin, Norma June Merritt, William Thomas Neal, Jr., Carl Clifford Outen, Robert Vernon Peele, Lawrence Edward Poteat, Jr., Mattie Gloria Starnes, Benjamin Taylor Steele, Mary Dale Waller, Martha Frances Washam, John Worth Wilkerson,

—Turn to Page Two

Last Dance Of Year Held Tonight; Four Societies Act As Sponsors

The traditional Farewell Dance will be held tonight in the college cafeteria at 8:30 p. m. This will be the last dance of the school year and every effort has been made to make it a success.

CLARION Places At Annual Press Meet

The Brevard college CLARION was awarded a "2nd Place" rating at the 28th annual contest of the Columbia Scholastic Press association at Columbia University. The scoring of 832 compares with the First Place rating of last year, when the bi-monthly college newspaper scored 850 points.

Especially criticized were "preachy" editorials, along with poor screening of cuts (pictures). "Make-up," and "writing and editing," received highest scoring, while "general considerations" received lowest percentage, followed by "content" rating.

In final comment the judges wrote of the CLARION:

"The staff does a very serious job in its college publication. There is evidence of practice and experimentation to improve the CLARION. It is a publication of substantial achievement. There is good

—Turn To Page Two

TRUSTEES MEET AT COLLEGE

The Brevard college board of trustees met at the college Thursday in the Dunham Hall conference room.

For the first time this year the dance will be sponsored by all four of the societies. The presidents of the Euterpeans, Mnemosynean, Clisophic and Delphian societies and the advisors, who are in the order of the societies mentioned, Miss Susan Graham, Miss Louise Mosely, Mr. Ray Fry, and Mr. Bruce Livengood are in charge.

The theme of the dance will be Memories and the main events of the year will be reviewed. Mountain laurel will probably figure prominently in the decoration scheme. Records will supply the music for dancing and refreshments will be served.

One member from each of the societies is on the three committees and they will be aided by all the members of the societies. Rachel Franklin, Patsy Starnes, Bob Martin and Bill Eller are on the decorations committee. Bill Whitlow, Rachel Meaders, Bobbie Bridges and Howard McIntosh are in charge of the entertainment and Charles Yarbrough, Carolyn Thrower and Carolyn Hamilton, and Tom Neal, the refreshments.

The old society presidents who are Martha Washam, president of the Euterpeans, Peggy Laughlin, president of the Mnemosyneans, Larry Poteat, president of the Delphians and Jack Holder, president

—Turn to Page Two