An Open Letter to the Members of the Sophomore Class:

In a short time, you will graduate. On this important occasion in your lives, we wish to give you our thanks for the help you have given to us, the members of the freshman class. You have helped to make us feel that we "belong" at Brevard college; to those of us who were homesick during our first few months of college life you have made us forget our longings for home and friends.

We wish to assure you that wherever you may go from here—whether to work at some job or profession, to continue studies, to walk down the aisle to the stains of Mendelssohn, or to serve on the battlefields in Korea—our best wishes for your success and happiness are yours.

It won't be the same next year without you, but we know that opportunity is knocking and that it is time for you to answer the door.

In deepest sincerity, we say to you only, "Good-bye. We've been glad to know you, Friend."—J. C.

ANOTHER APPROVING NOTE

Mealtime has brought a note of closer union and a type of "familiness" here of late. Food has been served family style at the evening meal several times each week; and buffet suppers have been featured. Many thanks to Mrs. Hopkins, the new college cafeteria dietitian, and her expert staff!

A HOME RUN!

A home score was hit by the chapel committee here through its recent presentation of the Rev. Walter Lee Lanier, of Wadesboro, in a Family Life conference. In general and private discussions Mr. Lanier brought to this campus that sort of expert advice which is necessary—but very often not at all available—to college men and women.

president emeritus of this institution. He came to Brevard college at its merged opening here in 1934 as vice president. He was head of the college chemistry department, and did additional teaching in the fields of German and religious education.

His retirement was made official at the end of the summer session, 1950. The Trowbridges made their home in Brevard until recently when they moved to the Methodist home in Charlotte.

Speaking of Prof. Trowbridge's work here, Miss Marjorie Craig, professor of English and college historian at Brevard, pointed out the "personal warmth and interest" which characterized his work with students.

The Trowbridge portrait will hang over the entrance from the foyer into the college library, according to Acting President Stevenson.

Anderson Elected New President At Dramatics Meeting

Jack Anderson was elected president of the Playmasters, dramatics club of Brevard college, for the coming year at a recent meeting of the club.

Other officers elected at the same meeting were Melvin McIntosh, vice president; Carolyn Thrower, secretary; and Elaine Walker, treasurer. Mr. Ray Fry was re-elected to the position of club adviser, and June Craft was re-elected student director.

Plans have been made to furnish an office for the club in Dunham Hall next year, the club advisor announced. Further plans will be revealed at a later meeting.

Mrs. Mary B. Livengood, registrar, announced this week that Caroline Davis, freshman from Brevard, has been selected to serve as chief marshal for the commencement exercises.

Other marshals who were chosen to assist Miss Davis are Jane Bishop, Harold Black, June Craft, Mary Ann Holden and Joyce Wilkinson.

The marshals will serve for both the commencement sermon and the graduation exercises. The sermon will be held at the Brevard Methodist church on Sunday morning, June 8. The graduation exercises will be held in the college auditorium on Monday morning, June 9.

College Holds Camp At Lake Junaluska

The entire student body with faculty and staff from Brevard college was invited to a school-wide camp week end at the Methodist Assembly grounds, Lake Junaluska, last week end (May 24-25). Permission was granted the college for use of Camp "Adventure" by Dr. H. G. Allen, superintendent of the assembly.

Nearly one-half the student body registered for the two-day week end at Junaluska. The trip was made by car, and members of the college cafeteria staff did cooking at camp.

Included on the recreation program were swimming, square and round dancing, and other sports. Saturday night permission was granted at midnight.

Sunday Activity

A special Sunday service was held on the camp grounds at 11:00 a. m. This religious service was conducted by students from the college. Other Sunday activities were in conformity with assembly regulations.

The group left Junaluska Sunday afternoon and stopped at Pink Beds in Pisgah National Forest for a picnic supper en route back to the college.

The week end trip was sponsored by the college physical education department, with Miss Louise Moseley, head of Women's Athletics, in charge.

According to Miss Moseley, this is the first time during the current year that the entire student group has assembled for a week end off campus.
