

C. F. C. Installs New Officers Here At Special Service

A special installation service was held for newly-elected officers of the Brevard college Christian Fellowship club here Wednesday evening, May 6, in the Dunham Hall auditorium. The impressive ceremony was conducted by Norma June Merritt, retiring president of the campus group, at the regular mid-week vesper service.

Replacing Miss Merritt as president of the student organization is Mack Morne Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, Route 1, Bessemer City. Armstrong has been active in student council work, athletics and religious work at Brevard. He is a ministerial student.

Elected vice president for next year is Jack Anderson, son of Mrs. I. S. Anderson, of White Hall, South Carolina. Anderson is newly elected president of both the Commercial and Dramatics clubs; he is also a member of the Monogram club.

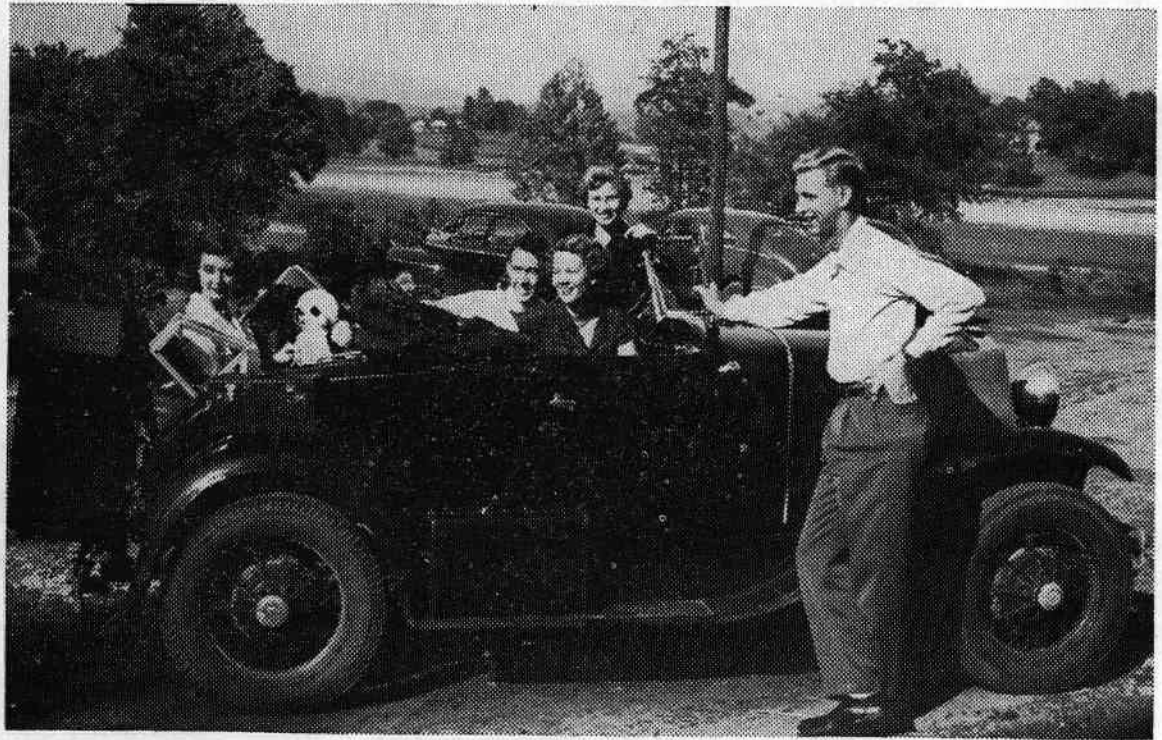

Installed as secretary-treasurer is Dora Ella Huss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Huss, of Vale. Miss Huss is a member of the Mnemosynean literary society.

Commission Chairman Installed

Also installed at the evening service were Jane Edwards, of Charlotte, as chairman of the worship commission; Nancy Carson, of Belmont, and William Whitlow, of Mount Mourne, as co-chairmen of the recreation commission; and co-charimen Melvin McIntosh and Stowe Hull of the publicity commission.

The altar for the service was decorated with a white linen cloth, centered by a slanting white cross with white tapers. Lighted tapers also decorated the organ. Nancy Hager was organist.

Adviser for the club is the Rev. C. Edward Roy, head of the Brevard college department of religion, and director of admissions for the college.

It's nearly time to crank up the old Ford, saddle Dobbin, or catch a choo-choo for the annual trek homeward. Above is visualized a scene which might take place several days hence. Kleenex for sale in the college Bookstore.

Baseball Team Wins 2 Conference Games

The Brevard Baseball Tornadoes won their first and second conference wins in two seasons recently by defeating the Asheville-Biltmore Bulldogs 11-6, and taking one end of a double-header from North Greenville by the count of 5-1. Brevard dropped the nightcap of the bargain bill to N. G. by the score of 8-4.
