

Stolen Humor

Do you smooch with the lights on or off?
 She: Yes.

An elderly clergyman, primly fastidious in his bachelorhood, was shocked to discover that his housekeeper had been using his bathtub during his absence from the house. "What distresses me most," he said, "is that you did it behind my back."

"May I take you home? I like to take experienced girls home."
 "But I'm not experienced."
 "You're not home yet, either."

She took my hand in sheltered nooks,
 She took my candy and my books,
 She took that lustrous wrap of fur,
 She took those gloves I bought for her,
 She took my words of love and care,
 She took my flowers rich and rare,
 She took my soft, beseeching smile,
 She took my time for quite a while,
 She took my kisses, maid so shy—
 She took, I must confess, my eye,
 She took whatever I could buy.
 And then she took another guy.

Are You Motivated?

Is your life motivated? If not, subscribe to Motive, the magazine that places motive in your life. Articles on youth problems, current events, Biblical questions and student contentions make up only a small part of this vastly popular magazine.

Edited by Roger Ortmayer, Motive has become one of the leading editions in the religious field today. It deals with the questions and problems of young people in an adult way.

Anyone on the Brevard campus wishing to subscribe to Motive for one dollar per year, may see either Larry Davis of the boy's dormitory or Gloria Gilliam in the girl's dorm. The suggested procedure on subscriptions is for roommates to get one subscription, which will mean only 50 cents per semester for the most enjoyable reading to be had. Professor C. Edward Roy of this college is a member of the editorial staff of Motive and is actively engaged in obtaining and assorting material as well as giving his opinions to the publishers.

New Methodist Minister Here Gets Official Welcome On Tuesday Night

Rev. Douglas Corriher, the new minister of the First Methodist church here, was officially welcomed to Brevard at the monthly meeting of the Men's Fellowship club Tuesday evening in the church dining room.

President Ralph Heller presided over the dinner meeting and he presented Mr. Corriher to the large group of men attending. The new pastor succeeds Rev. J. Julian Holmes, who was transferred to Newton after a successful four-year pastorate here.

Mr. Corriher comes to Brevard from Asheville, where he was pastor of the Haywood Street church for the past four years. Prior to that time he was at the Spencer Memorial church in Charlotte for four years and at Matthews and Waxhaw.

A native of Columbia, S. C., the Rev. Mr. Corriher moved to Charlotte with his family when quite young. He graduated from Central high school there and in 1937 received his A. B. degree at Duke university. From Duke he went to Yale Divinity school for seminary training, where he served as director of youth work and the pastor's assistant in the First Congregational church. This required an extra year in seminary and in 1941 he received his B. D. degree.
