

Our Who's Whoers for this month are no doubt well known to all. They are Buddy Beard, Asheville; Julie Harris from Gastonia; Joe Wilson of Charlotte; and Sally Tysinger from Matthews.

WHO'S WHO

Our Who's Who list is made up of our talented, versatile personalities who contribute much to the development and life of Brevard college. The titles of Mr. and Miss Freshman and Mr. and Miss Sophomore have been awarded to outstanding Kenneth Otis Beard, Julianne Harris, Joe Wilson and Martha Ruth Tysinger.

Kenneth Otis Beard, better known as "Buddy," our well-named Mr. Freshman, hails from Asheville, N. C., where he graduated from Biltmore high school. He is undecided as to what his career will be, but is contemplating business. As a hobby, he collects matchbook covers, spends his free time typing, listening to gospel quartets and watching basketball games, and his favorite foods are mashed potatoes and banana pudding. Buddy's pet peeve is "people acting childish." His philosophy of life is "Live every day to the fullest and do not worry about tomorrow because it will take care of itself." Mr. Freshman lends his spare time and a helping hand to such organizations on campus as the Delphian society, Christian Fellowship club, and is a hard working member of the Clarion staff.

Julianne Harris, our pretty Miss Freshman with the sparkling smile and gay personality is a graduate of Gastonia high school. Her hobbies include reading and creative writing with bridge playing as another enjoyable pastime. Julie's pet peeve is "sarcasm" and she is "real gone" on chow mein, her most delightful food. Miss Freshman is studying to be a laboratory technologist, and her life's guiding rule is "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Julie's extra-curricular activities on campus include the position of secretary and treasurer of the Mne-mosynean society, a member of the Women's Athletic association, French club, and Christian Fellowship club.

Now the spotlight is focused on Joe Wilson, Mr. Sophomore, who is from Charlotte, N. C. A graduate of North Mecklenburg high school, Joe is majoring in music here at the college and is going to be a minister of music. After his education at Brevard is terminated, he plans to continue his studies at Duke university. Mr. Sophomore's pet peeve is "people who eat apples" and he fairly dotes on rare steak. Joe enjoys reading and watching movies and divides his much-in-demand time and abilities among the Music club, of which he is president, the Spanish club, of which he serves as vice president of the Delphian society and MSF council, in which he is a member.

Petite and charming Martha Ruth Tysinger, known to everyone on campus as "Sally" holds the title of Miss Sophomore. Sally calls Matthews, N. C., home now, but is originally from Waxhaw, N. C. A religion major, she lives by the golden rule "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Her hobbies are collecting jewelry, reading and participating in sports, and dating her fiancée, Paul Craschool, but here at Brevard college he's doing well in all he attempts. Basketball is what we're speaking of now. I heard someone say the other day that he was the team's "Silent Sparkplug." This is due to the quiet manner he uses on the court. Suddenly from out of nowhere he comes in to shoot or steal the ball. He is one of the leading men on this year's team with his fine display of defensive work.

Jason Smith is without any reasonable doubt one of the finest guys you'll ever meet. Jason is a boy who a few years ago thought he would never get to play ball again. It was discovered that he had a little trouble with his "ticke-." By staying out of sports for one year in high school and leading the clean wholesome life that he lives, this trouble was soon overcome.

Jason is 6' 2" and weighs about 185 lbs. He is a native of Brevard and a member of the Methodist church.

Jason has displayed this year he has the real qualities of a basketball player. He can shoot from just about any spot and is a whale of a team man. His favorite shot is the jump shot, with the one hand push.

He belongs to the MSF and Delphians. While attending Brevard high he was a member of the football and basketball teams. Among his club activities he was active in the Monogram club and Key club.

When asked what he thought about Brevard college, he said, "Most of all I like the Christian atmosphere and the friendly people." Jason is a freshman and will be back next year.

Fans, here's one for Ripley's "Believe It or Not." Tommy Cassidy, the co-captain of our basketball team, never played basketball in high school. Tommy has been one of the mainstays all year with an average of 10.2 for the Tornados. I finally squeezed more out of this lad, and he said he did play in junior high school. He had experience in the Charlotte city league. While playing the role of player-coach his team rolled up a record of 14 wins and no defeats.

Last year he played on the team and was seventh man in the lineup. This year Tommy has really come into his own, with the fine record mentioned above. He's a crackerjack ball handler as well as a team man and a fine defensive player. His team spirit and love of the game make him a great competitor.

His hobbies are golf, softball, and the girls' dorm. Cassidy says he'd rather play basketball than sleep, well, that kind of attitude always comes from a fine athlete.

Tommy is "extra pleased" this season with the fine school spirit which has been displayed.

ven. Sally's pet peeve is "People who think they are better than anybody else" and her favorite food is chicken. Miss Sophomore ranks high in the activities on campus, serving as co-chairman of the Christian Fellowship club, treasurer of the Euterpean society, a member of the Christian Council and captain of the Green team.
