Lloyd Hensley, Freshman attendant Miss Pat Harrison, and Mr. Don Oglesby. Crowning was done by Mr. Robert Little, President of the Student Body.

EMA Plans To Sponsor Ball

The EMA will sponsor a masquerade ball on February 1, 1957, in the main auditorium. The costumes will be judged, and there will be dancing to the school's combo.

"Early notice of the ball is furnished so that the students may bring back their costumes from Christmas holidays," Howard Martin, president of the EMA club stated.

Day Students Plan Festivities

Members of the Day Students' Club met in the Dunham Hall auditorium on Monday, November 25.

The president, Sarah Fortune, presided; and a business session was conducted. Plans for taking the annual picture were discussed, and the subject of dues was taken up.

LaLeet Lance, chairman of the committee on making Christmas plans, gave a report, and the club members voted in favor of going caroling on December 13 and of assisting the Women's Intramural Council in sponsoring a Christmas party.

Homecoming Activities Were Success

The Homecoming activities at Brevard College were a tremendous success. The activities got under way at 9:30 with registration for the alumni followed by a coffee in the faculty lounge at ten o'clock.

At 11:00 a Thanksgiving service was held in the campus center building auditorium conducted by President McLarty. During the service there were welcomes by representatives of Weaver College, Rutherford College, and Brevard College. The special music was given by the Brevard College glee club.

Dinner was served in the college cafeteria and turkey was enjoyed by all.

Following the dinner the college opened its doors to the many guests and alumni for an open house.

At 3:00 a basketball game was held in the gymnasium with the Brevard Tornados playing the Hendersonville All-Stars. The half-time activities could be called the anticlimax of the day. After a fanfare by the newly organized campus band, the Freshman attendant, Miss Pat Harrison, was escorted by Mr. Don Oglesby followed closely by Miss Beverly Ussery, the Sophomore attendant, escorted by Mr. Charlie Adams. Then the moment everyone had been waiting for—the entrance of our lovely Homecoming Queen, Miss Jerri Mason, escorted by Mr. Lloyd Hensley. After the crowning, her majesty, Queen Jerri and her court were entertained by the tumbling class.

The climax of the day was held at 8:30 in the auditorium with a dance sponsored by the Clios and Euterpeans. The theme was "Deep Purple" and the music was provided by the "Campus Kats" of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Thus, the 1957 Homecoming of Brevard College was brought to a close. Truly it was a glorious occasion.
