

Only Fifty Days
Till The

The Clarion

Spring Holidays
Begin!

VOLUME XXVI

BREVARD COLLEGE, FEBRUARY 6, 1959

NUMBER 7

GALA BALL WILL BE VALENTINE HIGHLIGHT

Thirty-Seven Listed On Semester Dean's List And Honor Roll

Thirty-seven Brevard college students made the honor lists for the fall semester. Eight of these students met the 2.5 requirement for the Dean's list, while 29 others maintained the 2.0 average required for the Honor roll.

Those on the Dean's list are Jose Bolanos from Matanzas, Cuba; Sharon Cline, Belmont; Joseph Harris, Asheville; Charles Lipsey, Jacksonville, Florida; Judith McManus, Charlotte; Mildred Miller, Brevard; Mary Allyn Reynolds, Brevard; and Carol Walser, Thomasville.

Included on the Honor roll are Patricia Baker, Hendersonville; Frances Barton, Hendersonville; Jose Canive, Palmira, Cuba; Dee Carden, Concord; Sankie Caviness, Asheboro; Ken Dawkins, Newland; Myra Dellinger, Belmont; Kay Fink, Concord; Patricia Gray, Hampden, Massachusetts; Agnes Hamilton, Brevard; Charles Hartsook, Greensboro; Celia Hooper, Canton; Betty Hornaday, Waynesville; Joe Litaker, Concord; Sherrill Michael, Lexington.

June Nelson, Flat Rock; Elmer Norwood, Kings Mountain; Robert Parrot, Henderson; Roland Peacock, Winston-Salem; Nancy Poley, Charlotte; Patricia Pruitt, Brevard; Linda Sluder, Asheville; Marion Swann, Spruce Pine; Dan Wallace, Winston Salem; Don Walser, Lexington; Max Walser, Lexington; Louise Waters, Charlotte, and Jane Yoder, Fallston.

Phi Theta Kappa Taps Seventeen New Members In Chapel

The Delta Pi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa tapped eighteen new members into the society during a tapping ceremony held in assembly on February 4.

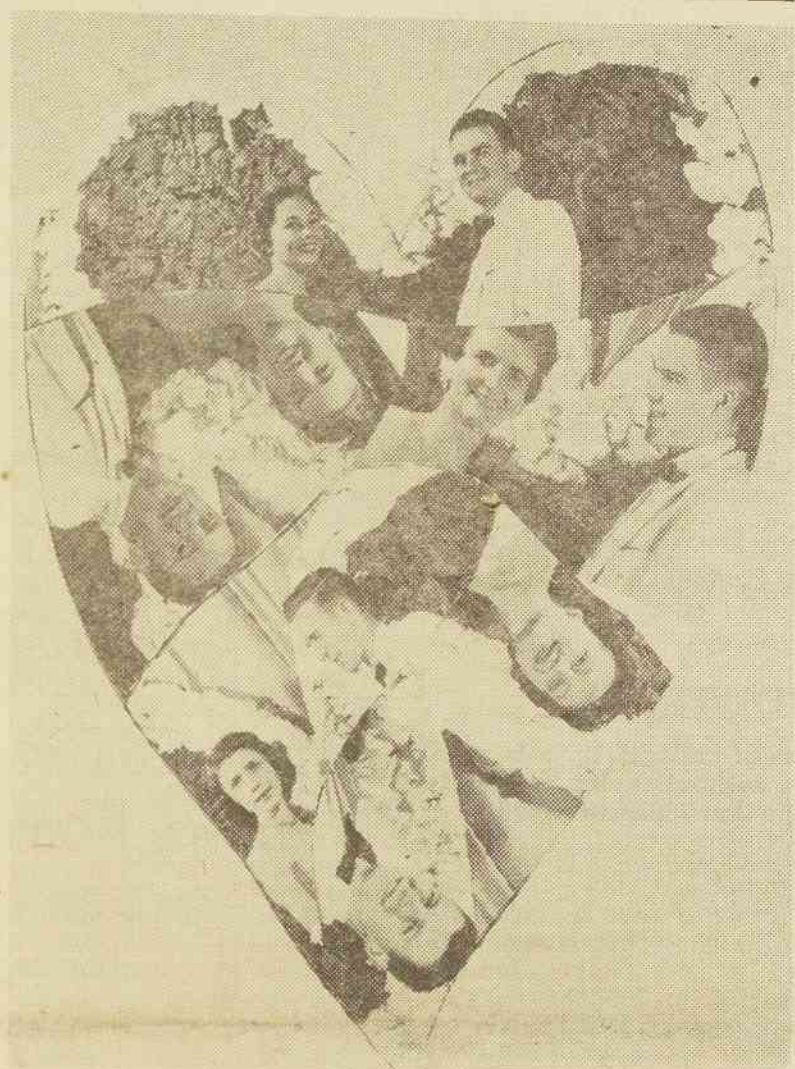

The president, Sharon Cline, presided, and a brief history of the organization was given by the secretary, Jane Yoder. Phi Theta Kappa members then went into the audience and conducted the new members onto the stage, where they took the pledge in groups of six. Insignias were pinned on them by the person who tapped them, and Mildred Miller then sang the Phi Theta Kappa song.

The students tapped were Frances Barton, Jose Canive, Dee Carden, Ken Dawkins, Kay Fink, Pat Gray, Joe Harris, Charles Hartsook, Celia Hooper, Betty Hornaday, Joe Litaker, Judy McManus, Sherrill Michael, Elmer Norwood, Patricia Pruitt, Marion Swann, and Max Walser.

To qualify for membership in Phi Theta Kappa, a student must acquire and maintain a "B" average, must take at least twelve hours in the arts and sciences, must be of high moral character and should possess qualities of leadership.

Dr. Burt Loomis is the faculty advisor to the group.

ORGAN RECITAL, Methodist church, 4:30 p. m., Sunday.

THE 1959 VALENTINE COURT is shown above. Clockwise, they are Kaye Willis and Jim Siebert; Elaine Helms and Alton Jones; Linda Sluder and Leroy Hill; Joan Hardin and Mike McClaugherty; and Joy Cook and Wallace Fortenbury.

Willis, Siebert To Be Crowned At Intermission

The Sweetheart King and Queen, Mr. Jim Siebert and Miss Kaye Willis, will reign over the Sweetheart Ball to be held on Valentines day, February 14, from 8-12 p. m., in the Campus Center Building auditorium. The dance is sponsored by the Mnesosynean and Delphian societies.

The attendants and their escorts are Joan Hardin and Mike McClaugherty; Linda Sluder and Leroy Hill; Joy Cook and Wallace Fortenbury; and Elaine Helms and Alton Jones.

The Delmonicos from Shelby promise a variety of music for everyone's enjoyment and dancing.

The Royalty and their court will be presented during the intermission.

Last year's King and Queen, Mr. Eddie Dacus, a student at Clemson, and Miss Margaret Sherrill, a student at Western Carolina, will crown their Majesties, Kaye and Jim.

Entertainment made up of the talent of the Nemos and Delphians will also be presented during intermission. Harry Skipper, president of the Delphians, will be Master of Ceremonies.

Refreshments will be served in the faculty lounge from 9:30-10:30 p. m.

The committees for the dance and their chairmen are: theme and decoration, T. C. Hadwin; programs, Tommie Bradley and Agnes Hamilton; band, Maxine George; entertainment, Bruce McQuillin; refreshments, Betty Southerland and Alice Earwood; and clean up, Harry Skipper.

The dance is formal, but flowers will not be required.

Many former Brevard college students will be present. The Nemos and Delphians invite each and every one to come.

New Students Join Student Body For Spring Semester

Spring semester registration was held on Monday, January 26, and brought many new faces to the Brevard College campus. The student roll for the semester reached 304 and the new students are: Richard Noel Bradshaw, Penrose; James Crawford, Lancaster, S. C.; Brian Kent Dorsey, Mountain Home; Paul Frady, Pisgah Forest; Sara Fortune, Brevard; Norman Edwin James, Durham; John Walter Johnson, Greenwood, S. C.; Reuben Rudolph Lewis, Hopewell, Virginia; James Lovelle, Asheville; Janet Milner, Waynesville; Jeanne Marie Morris, Marion; Malwood Motamen, Tehran, Iran; William Wayne Redmond, Hendersonville; Phil Tappy, Morganton; George White, Brevard; Charles Michael Olhiff, Georgetown, S. C.

The Brevard College student government welcomes the new students to the campus.

RABBI FREDERIC RYPINS will speak in chapel Wednesday morning, February 11.

CAPSULE COMMENTS

Wagner Buys

Mr. Pierre Wagner, popular language professor, recently purchased a new Nash automobile. Mr. Wagner, a former resident of Switzerland, is active in developing the Mountaineer's hiking organization, in addition to teaching French and German.

Himes Speaks

Mr. Charles Himes of the Brevard Volunteer Fire Department addressed the student body on Friday, January 30. Mr. Himes' address dealt with modern fire-fighting methods. Scholarly and highly entertaining, Mr. Himes made himself highly popular with the students.

Hadwin, Hill, Taylor Join

Thomas Cecil Hadwin, Jr., Leroy Hill, and Walter Bruce Taylor, Jr., have been named to serve on the men's assembly. They, along with Robert Drum, are the only freshmen serving on the council. According to Dean Henderson, these appointments are a part of his plan to have some rising sophomores serve on the council prior to the opening of school next fall.

Plant Speaks

Dean Rubie Plant, of the department of religious education, spoke to members of Kappa Chi Fraternity at their regular meeting on Thursday night, January 29. Miss Plant, herself a former director, spoke on the work of the Director of Religious Education.

"Sore But Delightful"

Is every muscle in your body

sore from your neck down? Do you feel as though your every movement may be your last? If you do, then you must be one of that score or more of students who, each week, are actively participating in the horseback riding classes at High Rock Camp. Someone has appropriately labeled it "sore but delightful."

Shore Speaks

Rev. Phillip L. Shore, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist church in Hendersonville and a member of the college's board of trustees, spoke in chapel on Wednesday morning, January 28. Always a welcome visitor on the campus, Mr. Shore presented a challenging address.

Faulkner to Meet with

Rev. Mitchell Faulkner, who will be conducting the religious emphasis activities February 16 through 20, will meet with members of Kappa Chi Fraternity on Thursday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. in the faculty lounge. He will also meet with small groups in the dormitories from 9:30 until 10:30 p. m. each evening.

BULLETIN

Hear the Reverend Mitchell Faulkner speak next week on: "The Universal Human Need;" "The Divine Answer;" "The Redemptive Human Attitude;" "The Urgent Human Situation;" "The Divine Challenge."