

IT'S NOT AS LONG

The Clarion

AS IT HAS BEEN!

VOLUME XXVI

BREVARD COLLEGE, APRIL 18, 1959

NUMBER 11

College Glee Club Is Now On Tour In Carolinas

Thirty-Seven Named To Semester Dean's List, Honor Roll

The Honor roll and the Dean's list for the first half of the spring semester has been announced by Mrs. Brona N. Roy of the Recorder's office.

Those meeting the 2.5 requirement for the Dean's list are: Sharon Cline, Belmont; Kay Fink, Concord; James Lovetts, Asheville; Mildred Miller, Brevard; Mary Allyn Reynolds, Brevard; Marion Swann, Spruce Pine; and Carol Walsler, Thomasville.

Those meeting the 2.0 — or "B" — requirement for the Honor Roll are: Martha Adams, Gastonia; Patricia Baker, Hendersonville; Frances Barton, Hendersonville; Marie Benge, Black Mountain; Gail Bonnell, Brevard; David Brezeale, Pickens, South Carolina; Sankie Caviness, Asheboro; Dinah Carden, Concord;

Joy Cook, Asheville; Ken Dawkins, Newdale; John Denson, Lemon Spring; John Duvall, West Jefferson; Lynn Elzey, Creston; Linda Ferguson, Thomasville; Mary A. Fisher, Hazelwood; Patricia Gray, Hampden, Massachusetts; Charles Garner, Marion; Celia Hooper, Canton; Yulan Hutchens, Marion; Peggy Lewis, Marion, South Carolina; Judith McManus, Charlotte; Jorge Ros Mir, Ceinfuegos, Cuba; June Nelson, Flat Rock; Nancy Poley, Charlotte; Patricia Pruitt, Brevard; Linda Sluder, Asheville; Betty Sutherland, Asheville; Don Walsler, Lexington; Max Walsler, Lexington; and Jane Yoder, Fallston.

Science Exhibits Displayed Recently

The third annual science show, sponsored by the Math, Chemistry and Physics departments of Brevard College was held in the science building on Friday, April 17th.

The laboratories with the exhibits opened to the public from 3:00 to 5:30, and 7:00-9:00 p. m.

Exhibits by students in the science department included sketches and mock-ups of various industrial and chemical techniques.

Exhibits by the physics department included electrolysis of water, uses of the vacuum pump, electronic eye, oscilloscope and Cartesian diver.

The mathematics department dis-

—Turn to Page Two

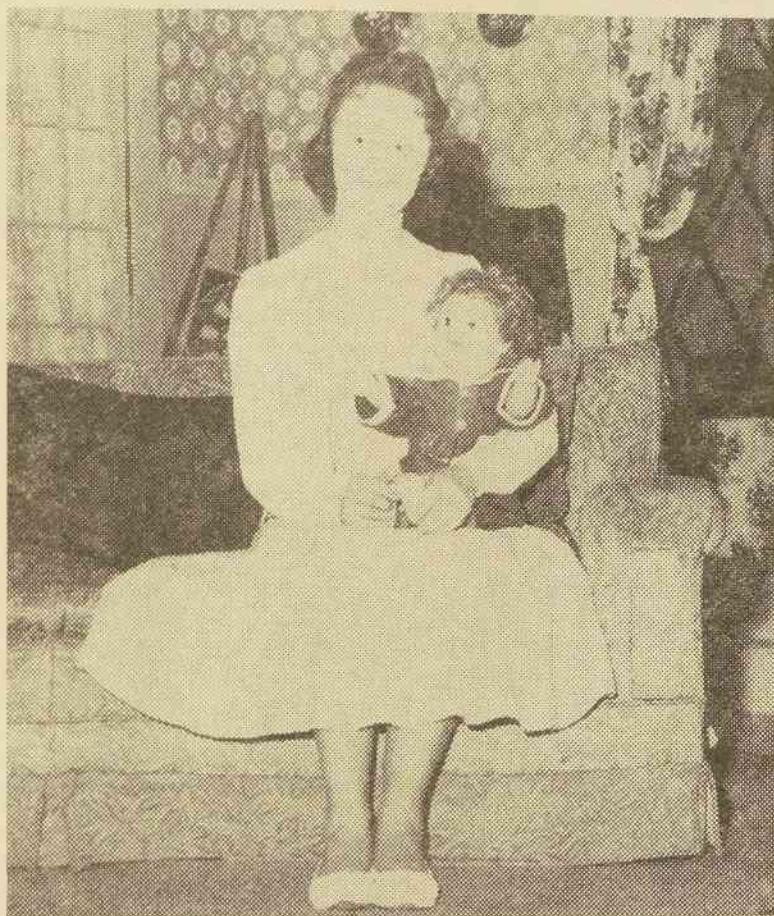

Pre-Registration Set April 17th

April 17 was set as Pre-registration day for the fall semester of the 1959-60 session. It is important that students register on schedule for the fall semester for the following reasons:

1. Student enrollments continue to be unpredictable, and, currently, new applications for enrollment are running somewhat above those of last year.

2. Students who register now will be more nearly assured of having courses offered which are nec-

—Turn to Page Four

GAIL BONNELL, as Florence in the BLT's production of "The Curious Savage," is shown here as she re-enacts a scene from the play.

"The Curious Savage" Acclaimed Success

"The Curious Savage," an entertaining comedy by John Patrick, was presented in the Brevard College Campus Center Auditorium on April 10-11, 1959.

The story was centered around Mrs. Savage, a widow and heiress to ten million dollars. The widow's step children, plotting to get the money, had Mrs. Savage committed to a sanatorium. During her stay in the sanatorium, Mrs. Savage discovered how valuable her money could be in helping the patients at the institution. With her new friends' help, Mrs. Savage rid herself of her step children and established a fund for the sanatorium.

Included in the cast was Gail Bonnell, who acted the part of Florence, one of the patients. In the make-up department were Jackie Richards and Mr. Alex McFadden. Tommy Gilbert was in charge of the lighting effects.

Group To Present Programs In High Schools And Churches

The college Glee club left on its annual spring tour Thursday, April 16, at 8:30 a. m. The fifth member group under the direction of Professor Nelson F. Adams, will sing in schools and churches throughout the Carolinas, making their primary stops around Charlotte, and Columbia, South Carolina.

The group will sing at Charles D. Owen High School, Black Mountain; Old Fort High School, Old Fort; the Methodist Home for the Aged, Charlotte; Belmont High School, Belmont; Winecuff High School, Concord; Belmont Park Methodist Church, Charlotte; First Methodist Church, Gastonia; Brookland Methodist Church, Columbia, S. C.; Orangeburg, S. C. High School; and, concluding the tour, at Brookland-Cayce High in Columbia. The Glee Club will arrive back in Brevard, Monday night.

The students will stay in a motel the first night of the tour and in private homes the remainder of the time.

Class Hears Talk, Has Fashion Show

The secretarial practice class had as their guest speaker on Tuesday, April 14, Mrs. Lita Steppe, a secretary at Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation.

She spoke on general office work and the traits expected in a good secretary. Included in her talk were tips on proper grooming.

To illustrate the correct attire of a secretary, Alice Pickelsimer and Ruth Souther modeled tailored ensembles suitable for office wear.

Nicholson Awarded Scholarship For Vanderbilt Study

Miss Bobbie Jean Nicholson, of the Science department, has been granted a fellowship for a year's study at Vanderbilt University. In June, Miss Nicholson will begin

—Turn to Page Two

CAPSULE COMMENTS

Brock Speaks

Rev. Jarvis Brock, pastor of the Little River Baptist Church, was the speaker at the regular meeting of Kappa Chi Fraternity on Thursday, April 9. Mr. Brock spoke on methods of evangelism, gave briefly its history, and closed the program with a period of discussion.

McLarty Leads In

President McLarty led in the morning worship service at the First Baptist church on Sunday morning, April 12. Many of the students from the college attended.

Class Pins

The Sophomore class has completed plans for ordering class pins for all members who want them. Robert Parrott is the president; Professor Stevenson is the class's advisor.

Gash Speaks

Attorney Robert Gash was the chapel speaker on Wednesday morning, April 1. Mr. Gash spoke on the practice of law as a profession.

Warren Speaks

Professor A. L. Warren, of the Transylvania Public Schools, was the chapel speaker on Wednesday morning, April 8. Mr. Warren spoke on teaching as a profession. These programs are a part of a series planned by the chapel committee to lead students in making their choices of their life's work.

Yountz Visits

Rev. J. E. Yountz, district superintendent of the Marion District, visited the campus and spoke in

—Turn to Page Two

Phi Theta Kappa Holds Coke Party

Approximately thirty-two persons attended the Coke party which Phi Theta Kappa gave for the Honor Roll students on Friday evening, April 10.

The Phi Theta Kappa members discussed the trip which the group is planning to take to the Biltmore Estate near Asheville. This excursion will be an event of Saturday, April 25. Also, a committee to nominate next year's officers was appointed.