

ELECTIONS
TO BE HELD
NEXT THURSDAY

The Clarion

8-PAGE 'CLARION'
TO BE OUT ON MAY 29th

VOLUME XXVI

BREVARD COLLEGE, MAY 1, 1959

NUMBER 12

THE 1959 MAY QUEEN AND HER COURT are pictured above in the Memorial gardens. Front row, left to right, are Shirley Moses, Chris Olsen, and Brenda Edison. Second row, Ruth Souther, Carol Mappus, and Betty Neale. Third row, Loretta Helms, Queen; and Maid of Honor, Tommye Bradley. Mildred Miller was not present when the picture was taken.

CAPSULE COMMENTS

McDonald Speaks

Rev. Thad McDonald, pastor of Asbury Memorial Methodist Church, Asheville, was the chapel speaker on Friday morning, April 17. Mr. McDonald, humorous and inspiring, challenged students to "do right, always."

Roy's Visit Tryon

Mr. and Mrs. Roy and Becky visited in Tryon on Sunday morning, April 19, where Mr. Roy preached the morning worship service at the Methodist church.

"Pop" Kenerly

Mr. Ben Kenerly, manager of the bookstore, was a patient in the Transylvania Community Hospital during the week of April 20-25. The students anticipate Mr. Kenerly's early return to the Soda Shop, popular campus gathering-place.

President McLarty

President McLarty spoke to the members of Kappa Chi Fraternity on Saturday evening, April 25. Speaking informally, Dr. McLarty chose as a theme, "These things you need."

Glee Club

The college Glee club sang in chapel on Friday morning, May 1. Among the songs used for this service was "Glorious Everlasting," written by instructor Thomas Cousins. Mr. Nelson Adams is the group's director.

Choir Sings

The College Choir will sing May 10 at the Brevard Methodist church.

—Turn to Page Three

Helms To Reign Over May Day Festivities

A trip around the world and a visit to the Brevard college campus in apple blossom time will highlight the annual May Day festivities, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon and evening, May 2.

Beginning at 4:00, the afternoon ceremonies will include the crowning of the May Queen, Miss Emma Loretta Helms, of Charlotte, by President Emmett K. McLarty and a short program of entertainment presented in her honor. Mr. Jim Huffman, of Marion, will escort Miss Helms.

"Around the World" will be the theme of the afternoon portion of the day's activities. Including music, dancing, and general entertainment for the pleasure of a mythical Miss World (represented by the May Queen), the program will be emceed by Marvin Clark.

Following this, a formal dance carrying out the theme, "Apple Blossom Time", will be held in the Campus Center auditorium in the evening. Sponsored by the Wodenians, or Veteran's club, the dance, scheduled from 8:30 till 12:00, will feature Tommy Taylor and his band from Greenville, South Carolina. Ronnie Sides, Sis Stephens, Jerry Cantrell, and Jim Crenshaw will furnish the local talent.

Programs, arrangements, and entertainment are being handled by Lee Guadalupe, president of the Wodenians, and Francis Guffey, general chairman of the dance. Mrs. Barbara M. Sader, of the college faculty, is the general supervisor of the occasion.

Participating in the day's festivities will be the 1959 May Court. They are the Maid of Honor, Miss Virginia Bradley, of Cherokee, with Mr. Charles Hensley; Miss Mildred Miller, of Brevard, with Mr. Don Marchant; Miss Shirley Moses, of Clover, South Carolina, with Mr. Phillip Schoonmaker; Miss Ruth Souther, of Brevard, with Mr. Fred Osteen; and Miss Louise Waters, of Charlotte, with Mr. Steve Grammill.

Miss Brenda Edison of Gastonia, with Mr. Kent Laughter; Miss Carol Mappus, of Charleston, South Carolina, with Mr. Lamar White; Miss Elizabeth Neale, of Charlotte, with Mr. Max Walser, and Miss Christine Olsen, of Charlotte, with Mr. Robert Tickle.

Open House To Be Held At Hospital

The students and faculty are invited to attend an open house at the Transylvania Community Hospital on Tuesday, May 5. This event is sponsored each year in commemoration of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, by the Hospital Woman's Auxiliary.

In the afternoon there will be a silver tea given by the Auxiliary in the nurses' dining room.

Mrs. J. F. Leete stated that the proceeds would be used to purchase needed equipment. "I hope many students and faculty will attend," she said.

Candidates Given For SGA Election

Charlie Garner, president of the Student body, has announced the candidates selected by the nominating committee of four, appointed by the Student council.

Running for the various offices are the following: SGA president—Steve Brown and Max Walser; SGA vice president—Leroy Hill and Jim Pyatt; secretary-treasurer, Chris Olsen and Aurelia Morgan; and Social chairman, Nancy Poley and Sara Cox. For editor of the CLARION, Judy McManus will compete, with Chuck Rimer running for business manager. Marty Clark will be the candidate for editor of next year's PERTELOTE, while Lavaun Taylor will seek election as business manager.

According to a rule of the Constitution, petitions for these candidates were circulated and turned in by Thursday afternoon, as well as petitions for those nominated directly from the student body themselves. Petitions were required to contain the names of at least 10 percent of the students.

The announcement of definite candidates will be made today, as well as information concerning campaign speeches.

ASSEMBLY SPONSORS PICNIC

The Men's Assembly will sponsor a school-wide picnic on Saturday afternoon, May 9. All students, faculty, and staff are invited. This year the picnic, which has become an annual affair, will be held at Camp Deerwood. Deerwood is located on the Country Club road some two miles from the campus.