

GRADUATION EXERCISES SET FOR SUNDAY

Big Sisters Hold Tapping Ceremony For New Members

The Brevard College Big Sister organization has tapped 14 outstanding rising sophomores for the year '59-60. They are Betty Neale, of Charlotte, who is the president of the group; Chris Olsen, Nancy Poley, and Judith McManus, also of Charlotte; Martha Adams and Susan Hunt, of Gastonia; Martha Clark, of Concord; Virginia Doscher, of Charleston, S. C.; Betty Sutherland, Linda Sluder, and June Feemster, all of Asheville; Betty Lou Hornaday, of Waynesville; Betty Eure, of Morehead City; and Patricia Pruitt, of Brevard.

A picnic was held for the new members on May 18, and the installation service was held at that time. Preliminary plans were also made for the coming year. The group will return to campus several days before the freshmen arrive for further planning and study for the year's program.

McManus Chosen Chief Marshal

Judy McManus, of Charlotte, will serve as the chief marshal for the commencement exercises beginning on May 30.

Other marshals are Dee Carden, of Asheboro; Kay Fink, of Concord; Celia Hooper, of Canton; Nancy Poley, of Charlotte; and Max Walser, of Lexington.

The marshal appointments were announced by Professor J. J. Stevenson, Jr., college marshal and chairman of the committee on Academic Honors and Awards.

Considered one of the highest honors granted to a student at Brevard college, the office of marshal is based on scholarship, character leadership ability, and service.

REVEREND SHORE

DR. HARRELL

Shore, Harrell To Deliver Addresses; Glee Club To Sing

In preparation for graduation, approximately sixty Brevard college sophomores will follow a rigorous schedule beginning early May 30 and ending following the graduation exercises on May 31.

The culmination of the two days' activities will be the baccalaureate service at 11:00 Sunday morning in the Brevard Methodist church and the commencement exercises at 4:00 that afternoon in the college auditorium.

Commencement Speakers

The Reverend Philip L. Shore will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon. Pastor of the First Methodist Church in Hendersonville, the Reverend Shore has been active in the Methodist church for many years and is a member of the Board of Trustees of Brevard college.

The commencement speaker will be Dr. George T. Harrell, Dean, College of Medicine, University of Florida. Dr. Harrell has been a leader in numerous medical associations, holding top offices in the Southern Society for Chemical Research and the Medical Advisory Panel. A graduate of Duke University, Dr. Harrell has won several awards for his exhibits before the SMA and the AMA.

Alumni Luncheon

Among the other activities scheduled is the annual Alumni Luncheon and business meeting in the college cafeteria at 12:30 p. m., May 20. Members of the graduating class will be the special guests and will be officially welcomed into the Alumni association at that time.

Glee Club Concert

Following, at 8:00 p. m., the annual concert by the music department will be presented in the Sims Center building auditorium. Featured will be the 49-voice Glee club, under the direction of Mr. Nelson F. Adams, and the Brevard College Symphonette, conducted by Mr. Ralph Reed.

Carillon Recital

At 3:30 Sunday afternoon, a Carillon recital will be heard.

Bennets, Dean Plant Entertain Students

Dean and Mrs. J. B. Bennett will entertain students with a "Victory Over Exam" celebration at their home between the hours of three and five o'clock on Friday afternoon.

Dean Rubie Plant was hostess to members of the Student council and other invited guests for the evening meal on Thursday, May 21 in Jones Hall.

Announcement

The eight-page "Clarion" originally scheduled for publication had to be cancelled because it could not be off the press until Saturday, May 30; thus, very few students would have been here to see it. It was impossible to have an eight-page paper printed any sooner, so the "Clarion" staff thought it best to settle for a regular 4-page edition which could be published in time for more people to obtain a copy.

Brown Elected President Of SGA; Hooper, Guffey Head Assemblies

Stephen Webb Brown of Asheville was formally installed as the new SGA president on Wednesday morning, May 13. He will serve during the school year 1959-1960.

Elected to serve with Steve were: vice-president, Thomas Dickens; secretary-treasurer, Aurelia Morgan; and social chairman, Sara Cox.

Editorial Heads

Other major offices filled during the election were: "Clarion" editor, Judy McManus; Pertelote editor, Marty Clark; "Clarion" business manager, Chuck Rimer; and "Pertelote" business manager, Lavaun Taylor.

Charles Garner, the outgoing president, briefly reviewed the current term's activities following Brown's induction.

In his acceptance remarks, the new president said, "With your help and with God's help we shall strive to make next year a good year."

Steve, a graduate of Asheville's Lee Edwards High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Brown. A pre-ministerial student, he has been active this year in Kappa Chi and Christian Fellowship, and he has also served on the Christian Council.

Assembly Officers

Celia Hooper of Canton and Francis Guffey of Oak Hill, West Virginia, will preside over the meetings of the Women's and Men's Assemblies next year. Recently installed during chapel-assembly in a candlelight ceremony, Celia and "Guffy" replaced Myra Dellinger and Bobby Tickle.

Other officers of the Women's Assembly include Virginia Doscher

—Turn to Page Three

THE SGA OFFICERS AND THE CLARION AND PERTELOTE editors are shown above. Front row, right to left, are Marty Clark, PERTELOTE editor; Sara Cox, SGA social chairman; and Aurelia Morgan, secretary-treasurer. Second row, Judy McManus, CLARION editor; Steve Brown, SGA president; and Tommy Dickens, SGA vice-president.